

Contents

List of contributors

		vii
1	Railway regulation: a comparative analysis of a diverging reality Juan Montero and Matthias Finger	1
2	Railway regulation in Germany Thomas Fetzer	21
3	The ongoing process of liberalization of the railway sector in France Stéphane de La Rosa	34
4	Developments in rail regulation in Britain Chris Nash and Andrew Smith	45
5	Railway regulation in Italy Nadia Bert and Germano Guglielmi	63
6	Spain: between the failure of freight and the success of high speed Alberto García Álvarez	77
7	Railways in Switzerland Matthias Finger	93
8	Regulatory challenges of open-access passenger competition in the Czech Republic Zdeněk Tomeš, Martin Kvizda, Monika Jandová and Václav Rederer	105
9	China's railway development: a cyclical process of de-regulation and re-regulation Linda Tjia Yin-nor	120
10	Railways in South Korea Leif Karlén	132
11	Railways in India: challenges and opportunities Rachna Gangwar	146
12	Railways in Japan Fumio Kurosaki	165
13	Rail sector reforms and regulation in Russia Yu Z. Saakyan	186
14	The deregulation of Turkish railways Şahin Ardiyok and Evren Sesli	206

15	Railways and railways regulation in the United States: surely you don't want Jones back? Russell Pittman	225
16	Towards a new architecture for technical regulation of Europe's railways Christian Chavanel	241
17	Regulating rail mass transit: a century-long legacy and still looking for fine tuning Pierre Messulam	257
18	Competitive tendering for regional trains: what can be learnt from economic literature? Patricia Perennes	270
19	Competition law challenges in domestic rail passenger services Mariarosaria Ganino	284
20	Financing railways Georg Götz and Jan Thomas Schäfer	304
21	The consumer perspective on railways Mark van Hagen	322
22	Competition in the market of rail passenger services: the experience of small and medium-sized new entrants in long-distance services in Europe Rodolfo Ramos	341
23	High-speed rail: from first principles to final expectations Michel Leboeuf	359
24	The digitalization dilemma in the railway industry Juan Montero	379
	Index	397