

CONTENTS

---

Acknowledgements	ix
Abbreviations	xiii
Introduction	1
I. Context	13
1 Cult of the New?	15
A partial history of new writing	16
The new writing system in the 2000s	28
2 What Is New Writing?	47
Distinctive and original	49
Relevant and resonant	54
Form and content	59
New writing, not	63
Stimulating and provocative	65
II. Themes	69
3 Global Roaming	71
Propheying war	73
Home front	79
Trips abroad	83
Soldier boys	86
Special relations	91
World news	94
4 Market Forces	101
Thatcher's legacy	102
Money problems	108
Celebrity cheats	111
Migrant moves	115
Hard labour	122

5 Two Nations	127
Chavs and have-nots	128
Winning losers	132
Country matters	137
Segregated communities	143
Racial tensions	150
Devolved identities	155
6 Love Hurts	163
Family favourites	164
Couples in crisis	171
Unsuitable suitors	176
Desperate females	182
Worried men	186
Terrible teens	189
7 Rival Realities	195
Inner space	195
Dystopian visions	200
Spooky coincidences	204
Parallel worlds	208
Medium messages	213
Imagined communities	218
Conclusion	225
Cultural hybrids	228
Fictional heroes	231
Rewriting politics	235
Notes	245
Bibliography	260
Index	275