

Contents

About the Authors	9
Introduction	17
Part I: Conceptual and Methodological Issues in Cross-National Research
1. Comparative Studies and Social Theory Stefan Nowak	34
2. New Directions in Comparative Research Charles Ragin	57
3. Cross-National Research as an Analytic Strategy Melvin L. Kohn	77
Part II: Max Weber's Enduring Pertinence for Cross-National Research
4. Legitimate Domination in Comparative-Historical Perspective: The Case of Legal Domination Włodzimierz Wesolowski	104
5. Max Weber and the Modernization of China and Japan Ken'ichi Tominaga	125
Part III: Nation as Context: Primary Analyses
6. Effects of Status-Inconsistency on the Intellectual Process: The United States, Japan, and Poland Kazimierz M. Slomczynski	148
7. Universals and Particularities of Socialist Educational Systems: The Transition from School to Work in the German Democratic Republic and the Soviet Union Artur Meier	167
8. Class Structure and Class Formation: A Comparative Analysis of the United States and Sweden Erik Olin Wright, Carolyn Howe, and Donmoon Cho	185

9. Class Mobility During the Working Life:
A Comparison of Germany and Norway

Karl Ulrich Mayer, David L. Featherman,
L. Kevin Selbee, and Tom Colbjørnsen

218

Part IV: Nation as Context: Secondary Analyses

10. Cross-National Research and the Analysis of Educational Systems

Margaret S. Archer

242

11. Alternatives in the Health Area:
Poland in Comparative Perspective

Magdalena Sokolowska and Andrzej Rychard

263

12. Ethnicity, Immigration, and Cultural Pluralism:
India and the United States of America

T. K. Oommen

279

Part V: Nation as Context: Multinational Analyses

13. The Professional-Proletarian Bind:
Doctors' Strikes in Western Societies

Aaron Antonovsky

308

14. Action and Reaction: An Integrated, Comparative
Perspective on Feminist and Antifeminist Movements

Janet Saltzman Chafetz and Anthony Gary Dworkin

329

Part VI: Nation as "Unit of Analysis" and Transnational Analysis

15. The Other Working Class: Uncommitted Labor in Britain, Spain, and Mexico

Bryan R. Roberts

352

16. Educational and Occupational Attainment in 21 Countries

Donald J. Treiman and Kam-Bor Yip

373

17. Conceptions of Christendom: Notes on the Distinctiveness of the West

John W. Meyer

395

Index

414