

CONTENTS

I. INTRODUCTION 7

II. THE GREAT PLAN 19

The Great Stalin Plan for the Transformation of Nature in Czechoslovakia (1948–64) 21

“A Great Leap” 22

The Countryside 32

Great Works of Socialism 37

The ČSAZV Committee for the Transformation of Nature 51

Institutionalization 53

Viliam’s Grass-Crop Rotation System 59

Horses and Corn 62

The System’s Collapse 65

The ČSAV Committee for Aiding Great Works of Socialism 69

III. TOPIC: The Stalin Plan between Malthusianism, Neo-Malthusianism, and Marxism 75

A Clash of Colors: Green versus Yellow 78

Population Policy 82

Energy and Food 86

IV. MAN 97

Reforging Man 99

Big and Fast 100

Plans 107

The Discourse of Building Socialism 119

Stakhanovites and Michurinists: The Birth of the New “Soviet” Man 127

The Socialist City: From the Symbolic Conquest of Space to Building New Cities 138

The Steel Heart of the Republic 152

V. WATER 163

“The Hydraulic Mission” 165

Actors: Karel Růžička 174

Water as a Pillar of Socialism 181

If a Tree Grows Sooner or Later, What Difference Does
It Make? We Have Much More Important Work 187

From Improving Management to Landscape
Protection 200

VI. TOPIC: Changing the Micro-and Macroclimate 213

Climate Change 215

Microclimate 225

Czechoslovak Rice 238

VII. CONCLUSION 245

Abbreviations 265

Images and sources 267

Primary sources and bibliography 270

Indexes 288