

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	xi
Chapter 1: An Overview of Relativism	1
1. Defining Relativism	1
2. A History of Relativism	2
3. Scripture and Magisterium on Relativism	12
Chapter 2: Ratzinger's Biographical Background and His Early Opposition to Relativism	25
1. National Socialism and Der gerade Weg	25
2. Cardinal Faulhaber, Josef Stelzle and Alfred Delp	30
3. The Munich School and Ignaz von Döllinger	36
Chapter 3: From Augustine to Bonaventure	45
1. Augustine's Ecclesiology	45
2. Bonaventure's Historicity of Revelation	50
3. Christian Brotherhood	60
Chapter 4: Against Relativism at Vatican II	69
1. Ratzinger as peritus and Dei Verbum	69
a) The Primacy of Liturgy	71
b) The New Position – Pastoral and Ecumenical	72
c) Pope Paul VI and Christ-centeredness	74
d) The Limits of Exegesis	75
e) The Eschatological Perspective	77
2. The Church's Attempts to Understand Herself – Lumen Gentium	78

f) The Structure of the Cross	79
g) The Church of the Poor	82
h) The Quicksand of Ecumenism	82
i) The Plurality of Churches.....	84
3) The Church in the Modern World– Gaudium et Spes	86
j) On Religious Liberty	87
k) Struggles over the Preparation of the Schema	88
l) Dialogue with the World	90
m) The Reality of Sin	91
n) Teilhard de Chardin and Technology.....	93
o) The Personalistic View	94
p) The Crisis of the Missionary Task.....	94
q) Post-Conciliar Observations	96
Chapter 5: Ratzinger Bringing Relativism into the Open.....	101
1. Liberation Theology and Relativism	101
a) Failure of the Marxist Dream	102
b) Bultmann's Hermeneutics.....	104
c) Democratization of the Church.....	107
d) Ratzinger defining Relativism	112
e) Relativism and Politics	114
f) John Hick's Attenuation of Christology	116
g) Recovering the Concept of Dialogue	117
h) Relativism – ex oriente	118
i) Orthodoxy and Orthopraxis.....	120
i) The Antirationalism of the New Age	123
j) The Question of Exegesis	127
2. Introduction to Christianity and the New Millennium	132
a) The year 1968.....	133
b) Progress to “produce” Man.....	136
c) Jesus, Buddha or Socrates?	137
d) The Personhood of God.....	139
e) The Fear of “Christian Imperialism”	141
f) Relativism and Ethics.....	142
g) The Divinity of Jesus Christ.....	143
3. Controversies over Dominus Iesus	144

Chapter 6: Responding to the Challenge of Truth in Truth and Tolerance and Without Roots	149
1. In Search of Truth and Fides et Ratio	149
a) Religious Pluralism—Asiatic Religions and Christianity	150
b) The Uniqueness of Jesus Christ	152
c) Cultural Relativism and Globalization	154
d) Faith and Reason	155
e) Faith and Culture	158
f) Faith and Salvation	159
g) Is Relativism our Solitary Option?	160
2. Ratzinger in Dialogue with Marcello Pera	163
a) Pera on Relativism	163
b) Jacques Derrida's Deconstructionism	164
c) The Religion of the Modern Man	166
d) Pera on Relativism and Christian Revelation	167
e) On the Conditions for the Rise of Relativism	168
f) The Two Kinds of Socialism	170
g) The Epochal Anthropocentric Shift	171
h) Relativism and Morality	172
i) Pera's Response to Ratzinger	175
j) Ratzinger's Response to Pera	177
3. Jürgen Habermas and Secularization	183
a) Law and Its Limitations	183
b) Self-reflection of Reason and a Dialogue with Religion	184
c) Challenges of Globalization	186
d) Respectful Limits of Reason and Religion	188
4. The Dictatorship of Relativism	189
Chapter 7: Critiques of Ratzinger's Anti-Relativistic Position...	193
1. Symposium in Response to Cardinal Ratzinger's Last Homily	193
2. Questioning Ratzinger as a Philosopher	196
3. The Dangers of Absolutism	204
Chapter 8: Ratzinger's Proposals to Overcome Relativism.....	209
1. To Relativize Relativizers	209

2. Blaise Pascal and his Wager Veluti si Deus Daretur	214
3. The Response: Through Prayer and Worship	224
Chapter 9: Benedict XVI and Relativism	233
Benedict XVI and Youth	237
Mutilation of Christology	242
Benedict XVI on Vatican II	244
Faith and Reason	247
On de-Hellenization in Regensburg	250
Media and Relativism	253
Relativism and Democracy	255
Natural Moral Law	256
The Historical Dimension	258
Caritas in Veritate	259
Conclusion	261
Bibliography	269
Endnotes	271