

Contents

| | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Preface | vi |
| 1 Myths, narratives and welfare states: an introduction | 1 |
| 2 Key concepts | 15 |
| 3 Welfare states' development | 30 |
| 4 Understanding of the behaviour of the unemployed: stories of laziness | 44 |
| 5 Migrants take our jobs and use and misuse the welfare system | 60 |
| 6 Do people know the size of the benefits? | 75 |
| 7 Pressure on services: the austerity and retrenchment debate | 85 |
| 8 Understanding of equality and deservingness | 94 |
| 9 Technological unemployment – it takes our jobs | 103 |
| 10 Lowering of taxes will make everyone richer | 112 |
| 11 It should pay to work | 120 |
| 12 Conclusions: ways forward for the welfare states | 129 |
| Index | 135 |