

Contents

1	Digesting Difference: Migrants, Refugees, and Incorporation in Europe Kelly McKown and John Borneman	1
2	The German Welfare State as a Holding Environment for Refugees: A Case Study of Incorporation John Borneman	29
3	Accepting Germans: An Ethnographic Exploration of Refugee Integration in Berlin Jagat Sohail	51
4	The Erotic in Foreigner Incorporation: First Encounters Between Germans and Syrians Parvis Ghassem-Fachandi	75
5	The Everyday, 'Ordinary' Citizens, and Ambiguous Governance Affect in Antwerp Anick Vollebergh	103

6	Hierarchical Forms of Belonging in an Egalitarian Society	129
	Synnøve Bendixsen and Hilde Danielsen
7	“Cut and Sew”: Migration, Crisis, and Belonging in an Italian Fast-Fashion Zone	149
	Elizabeth L. Krause
8	The Power of the Bowels: A Visceral Afro-Pentecostal Critique of Italian Afrophobia	167
	Annalisa Butticci
9	Workers for Free: Precarious Inclusion and Extended Uncertainty Among Afghan Refugees in Denmark	185
	Mikkel Rytter and Narges Ghandchi
10	Expulsion or Differential Inclusion? Governing Undocumented Migrants in France	209
	Stefan Le Courant
11	Solidarity in Greece and the Management of Difference	227
	Heath Cabot
12	Afterword: The Work of ‘Integration’	251
	Steven Vertovec
Index		267