

CONTENTS

Preface	9
<hr/>
Part One - History of the IOJ
1. Prehistory 1894-1945	15
The starting point in the 1890s	15
The FIJ between the World Wars	17
Developments during World War II	26
2. Founding 1946-47	29
Copenhagen 1946	29
Prague 1947	33
3. Turmoil in the Cold War 1948-53	41
Crisis 1948-49	41
Split 1950-53	52
4. Consolidation 1954-66	58
Quest for unity 1954-60	58
Emancipation of the Third World 1961-66	67
5. Expansion 1966-75	77
Record congresses and expanding activities 1966-71	78
Détente facilitating broader co-operation 1971-75	92
6. Keeping pace with a new world order 1976-80	101
Celebrating détente in Helsinki and Paris 1976-77	102
Global outreach with UNESCO, Mexico and Vietnam 1978-80	113
7. Persevering in a new Cold War 1981-85	128
Facing and waging campaigns 1981	129
Promoting peace and circumventing conflicts 1982-85	140
8. Heyday 1986-89	155
Turning 40 and in full flower 1986-87	156
Approaching zenith 1988-89	166
9. Disintegration 1990-97	177
Shaken by the fall of communist regimes 1990	178
Struggling for survival 1991-97	194

10. Demise 1998–2016	209
Last activities 1998	210
The lingering end 1999–2016	212
11. Overview 1946–2016	215
The IOJ history in brief	218
Recounting key aspects	220
Epilogue	226
So what? What if? What next?	226
Personal reflections	230

---

Part Two – Recollections of the IOJ

From inside the IOJ	237
Josef Klánský: A young man in a young organization	237
Jiří Meisner: Managing the IOJ to adulthood	244
Václav Slavík: The age of achievement with Jiří Kubka	251
Ferdinando Zidar: The story of my expulsion	261
Pál Tamás: The IOJ empire in Kadarist Hungary	264
Alice Palmer: The IOJ and the American black press	269
Christopher Muzavazi: From heyday to chaos	272
Michel Diard: The French factor	283
Rüdiger Claus: A journalist trainer's perspective	286
Phan Quang: Mission accomplished, heritage lives on	289
Testimony of the last four IOJ Presidents	297
Kaarle Nordenstreng: Bridgebuilding in a volatile world	297
Armando Rollemberg: From dream to disappointment	305
Manuel Tomé: Acting in crisis	312
Suleiman Al-Qudah: Towards the end	316
From outside the IOJ	321
Théo Bogaerts: Three decades in the IFJ	321
Hifzi Topus: A quarter of a century at UNESCO	328
Paolo Murialdi: Bringing the IOJ and the IFJ together	333
Wolfgang Mayer: Trying to overcome rivalry	337

---

Appendices – Documentation on the IOJ

Appendix 1. Meetings of the IOJ statutory bodies 1946–96	346
Appendix 2. Members of the IOJ leadership 1946–96	348
Appendix 3. Documents from the Russian State Archive 1949–50	351
Appendix 4. IOJ member organizations in 1966	355
Appendix 5. Chronology of IOJ activities 1967–90*	357
Appendix 6. IOJ presentations at the UN 1982–88	395

Appendix 7. Statement in Geneva 1984 and Press Release in Sofia 1985	406
Appendix 8. Proposal for main areas of IOJ activity after the 10th Congress 1986	408
Appendix 9. Minutes of the IOJ Presidium Bureau in Moscow 1987	411
Appendix 10. Mandates of the IOJ Commissions and Committees 1987	418
Appendix 11. IOJ member organizations in 1988	422
Appendix 12. Survey of IOJ membership in 1988 and 1991	426
Appendix 13. IOJ organizational structure in 1988 and 1990	427
Appendix 14. Agenda of the IOJ Secretariat meeting in March 1988	429
Appendix 15. IOJ awards until 1988	430
Appendix 16. Statement of the 3rd Congress of CSCE Journalists 1989	439
Appendix 17. Background paper for the IOJ trade union activities 1989	442
Appendix 18. Letter to the IOJ from the 1968 Center of Journalists of the ČSSR 1989	445
Appendix 19. Message from the IOJ on the eve of 1990	447
Appendix 20. IOJ buildings and premises in Prague 1990	449
Appendix 21. Declaration of the Syndicate of Czech and Moravian Journalists 1990	451
Appendix 22. Minutes of the IOJ talks with the Syndicate 1990	452
Appendix 23. Minutes of the IOJ talk with the Deputy Prime Minister 1990	458
Appendix 24. Report on the IOJ commercial activities in Czechoslovakia 1990	460
Appendix 25. The President's report on IOJ developments in 1989–90	466
Appendix 26. Temporary arrangements in the Secretariat in April 1990	474
Appendix 27. Report on the 11th IOJ Congress in Harare 1991	475
Appendix 28. Statement by the IFJ and IOJ on co-operation 1992	488
Appendix 29. Proposal by the IAMCR to re-establish the IJI 1992–94	490
Appendix 30. The President's post-resignation letter 1994 (Excerpts)	496
Appendix 31. Documents from the 12th IOJ Congress in Amman 1995	503
Appendix 32. Internal briefings from the Secretary General 1995	506
Appendix 33. IOJ homepage 1995	512
Appendix 34. Report of the Executive Committee in Prague 1995	516
Appendix 35. report to the Executive Committee in Hanoi 1996 (Excerpts)	525
Appendix 36. IOJ Letter to the IFJ Congress in Angers 2016	530

---

Bibliography	532
--------------	-----

Index of names	542
----------------	-----