

Contents

Thanks

Acknowledgements

Introduction

1	Preparing learners for reading	I 3
1.1	Visualization	16
1.2	Previewing a text by its vocabulary	18
1.3	Previewing a text through role play	20
1.4	A quick glimpse	21
1.5	Simplified to authentic	22
1.6	L1 to L2 reading	24
1.7	Predicting from pictures	25
1.8	Analyzing pictures	26
1.9	Predicting from text type	28
1.10	Predicting from the reactions of others	29
1.11	What I want to find out	30
1.12	What we believe	31
2	Moving beyond factual questions	33
2.1	Using symbols	36
2.2	Following instructions	37
2.3	Draw it	38
2.4	Retelling a text	39
2.5	Finding the right phrase	40
2.6	Preparing a multimedia text	42
2.7	Shallow to deep	43
2.8	Editing a text	45
2.9	Writing a summary in bullet points	46
2.10	Writing a summary in 21 words	47
2.11	Read a handful	48
2.12	Making notes	50
2.13	This text is ... because ...	51
2.14	Perhaps ... maybe	52
2.15	Role play	54
2.16	Reading as preparation for speaking or writing	55

3	Teaching reading strategies	57
3.1	I sometimes ...	60
3.2	Look into my mind	62
3.3	Annotating a text	64
3.4	Traffic lights	65
3.5	Group reading	66
3.6	Questioning the text and author	68
3.7	Breaking it into bits	69
3.8	Made-up words	71
3.9	The next word	72
3.10	Three words	73
3.11	What I know ...	74
3.12	Add the box	75
4	Helping learners develop reading fluency	77
4.1	Snap	80
4.2	Pelmanism	82
4.3	Reading Bingo	84
4.4	Find the pairs	86
4.5	Rogue words	88
4.6	PowerPoint pandemonium	90
4.7	Quick flash	92
4.8	Odd one out race	94
4.9	Find the changes	96
4.10	Read that again	98
4.11	Upgrade	100
4.12	All together	101
4.13	Follow me	102
4.14	The looking back quiz	103
4.15	The magazine quiz	104
4.16	What I remember	105
4.17	Who said that?	106
5	Exploiting literary texts	109
5.1	Questions, questions, questions	112
5.2	Literature circles	114
5.3	Ask the author	116
5.4	Using a script	117
5.5	Listening to the text	119
5.6	Read and talk, read and talk	120
5.7	Using graphic novels	121
5.8	The best opening line, ever	122
5.9	This doesn't belong here	123
5.10	Sentence detective	124

5.11	Watch and read	126
5.12	Preparing a trailer	127
5.13	Summary charts	128
5.14	Graphic organizer summary	130
5.15	Which character would you most like to ...	132
5.16	The story the author didn't write	133
5.17	The sequel	134
6	Exploiting digital resources	135
6.1	A quick experiment	138
6.2	Same or different?	139
6.3	How are they different?	140
6.4	Design it!	141
6.5	Comment on the comments	142
6.6	Predicting from others' reactions	143
6.7	Background check	144
6.8	Edit it	146
6.9	Rate the links	148
6.10	Search results	149
6.11	Find it	150
6.12	Learner research	152
6.13	Predicting the conversation	153
6.14	Following the conversation	154
6.15	Phone detective	156
7	Exploiting texts as objects of study	159
7.1	Vocabulary swap	162
7.2	Translating phrases	164
7.3	Rebuilding a text from fragments	165
7.4	Narrow reading and vocabulary	168
7.5	One sentence to many sentences	169
7.6	Grammar race	170
7.7	Chasing the meaning	171
7.8	Arrows	173
7.9	Focus on linkers	174
7.10	Study the genre	176
7.11	Making changes	177
7.12	Mixed lines	179
7.13	Who, what and how	180
7.14	Using graphic organizers	182
8	Developing critical reading skills	185
8.1	Investigate	188
8.2	Investigate (EAP)	189
8.3	Cross examination	190

8.4	Facts / opinions / reactions	192
8.5	Replacing words	194
8.6	Two views	195
8.7	The tourist trap	196
8.8	What's changed?	198
8.9	Analyze that!	200
9	Using learner-generated texts	201
9.1	Beginner reading	203
9.2	Who is who?	205
9.3	Read and comment	208
9.4	Questions to story	209
9.5	Paper text messages	210
9.6	Using voice recognition software	212
9.7	Read my text	213
9.8	Whose is it?	214
9.9	Next year's class	215
9.10	Photo captions	217
10	Encouraging extensive reading	219
10.1	The benefits of reading	222
10.2	Taking reading to the learners	224
10.3	The first page	225
10.4	The readability test	226
10.5	Let's fly to Mars	227
10.6	Reading log	228
10.7	But would it be a good film?	229
10.8	Casting the film version	230
10.9	Writing the script	231
10.10	Don't judge a book by its cover	232
10.11	Retell it	233
10.12	The shortlist	235
10.13	Pictures of my reading	236
11	Assessing reading	237
11.1	Ten texts	239
11.2	Reading to write	240
11.3	Free recall	241
11.4	Portfolios	242
11.5	That text was ...	244
11.6	Reading ladder	246
11.7	Learners as testers	248
11.8	Product and process assessment	249
11.9	One-to-one reading assessment	251

12	Developing expertise in the teaching of reading	253
12.1	Group interviews	255
12.2	Action research – reading activities	257
12.3	Analyzing pre-reading tasks	259
12.4	Materials evaluation	260
12.5	Peer observations	262
12.6	Team teaching	264
12.7	Reading group	265
12.8	Giving a workshop on reading	267
	Text bank	269
	An unusual meeting	269
	It's time to accept that elephants, like us, are empathetic beings	270
	A true story	273
	M is for mindset	274
	An email of complaint	276
	SueZe Lashes	277
	Football conversation	278
	Index	281