

Contents

List of Figures	vii
List of Contributors	x
Acknowledgements	xii
1 The (Re)makings of Art History and Europe After 1945	1
NOEMI DE HARO GARCÍA, PATRICIA MAYAYO, AND JESÚS CARRILLO
SECTION 1
Europe After the Rain	23
2 The Allied Cultural Policies in Germany: Between ‘Re-Education’ and the Politicisation of the Arts (1945–1949)	25
MORGANE WALTER
3 UNESCO’s Colour Reproductions Project: Bringing (French) Art to the World	41
RACHEL E. PERRY
4 Curatorial Experiments at the National Gallery After the Second World War: Reframing History and the Pursuit of Aesthetic Experience	67
ANA BAEZA RUIZ
5 The Venice Biennale at its Turning Points: 1948 and the Aftermath of 1968	83
STEFANO COLLICELLI CAGOL AND VITTORIA MARTINI
SECTION 2
Re-Reading Cold War Narratives	101
6 Artists in Service of the Masses: The Untold Story of the Yugoslav Socialist Realist Project	103
IVANA HANAČEK

7	The Museum of Contemporary Art in Belgrade and Post-Revolutionary Desire: Producing the Art History Narrative of Yugoslav Modern Art	125
	JASMINA ČUBRILO
8	Simultaneous Equations: Early Cold War Cultural Politics and the History of Art in Greece	149
	ARETI ADAMOPOULOU
9	Cold War Art Historiography: Some Observations on an Interdisciplinary Approach Through the Social Sciences	167
	NANCY JACHEC
10	Something Is Happening Here: Spaces and Figures of Change in Post-War Portugal	179
	LUÍS TRINDADE
SECTION 3
	A New Europe?	193
11	Art Policies, Identity, and Ideology in Spain During the 1980s	195
	DANIEL A. VERDÚ SCHUMANN
12	Official Art Becoming Resistance: Adopting the Discourse of 'Dissent' into Estonian Art History Writings	212
	KÄDI TALVOJA
13	Gender and Art History in Poland: A Constant Story of Subversion	228
	PAWEŁ LESZKOWICZ
14	Narrating Dissident Art in Spain: The Case of Desacuerdos. Sobre Arte, Políticas y Esfera Pública (2003–2005)	251
	ALBERTO LÓPEZ CUENCA
	Index	269