

Contents

1	Introduction	1
	Anne Peters
Part I Historical Foundations
2	Rights of and Over Animals in the ius naturae et gentium (Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries)	17
	Annabel Brett
3	On Women and Beasts: Human-Animal Relationships in Sixteenth-Century Thought	25
	Anna Becker
4	Animal Colonialism: The Case of Milk	35
	Mathilde Cohen
Part II Animals as Commodity
5	Trading in Sacrifice	47
	Kristen Stilt
6	Cross-Border Forms of Animal Use by Indigenous Peoples	57
	Stefan Kirchner
7	China's Legal Response to Trafficking in Wild Animals: The Relationship between International Treaties and Chinese Law	71
	Jiwen Chang
8	Corruption Gone Wild: Transnational Criminal Law and the International Trade in Endangered Species	81
	Radha Ivory

Part III New Legal Concepts

- 9 Biodiversity, Species Protection, and Animal Welfare Under International Law 95
Guillaume Futhazar
- 10 Toward International Animal Rights 109
Anne Peters
- 11 (Certified) Humane Violence? Animal Production, the Ambivalence of Humanizing the Inhumane, and What International Humanitarian Law Has to Do with It 121
Saskia Stucki

Part IV New Protective Legal Strategies

- 12 Trophy Hunting, the Race to the Bottom, and the Law of Jurisdiction 135
Charlotte E. Blattner
- 13 Protection of Animals Through Human Rights: The Case-Law of the European Court of Human Rights 153
Tom Sparks
- 14 Challenges Regarding the Protection of Animals During Warfare . . . 173
Jérôme de Hemptinne