

Contents

Special Issue: EU Agencies in Transnational Criminal Enforcement: From a Coordinated Approach to an Integrated EU Criminal Justice

Editorial

- Guest editorial: EU agencies in transnational criminal enforcement: From a coordinated approach to an integrated EU criminal justice 155
Jacob Öberg

Articles

- The European Public Prosecutor: Quintessential supranational criminal law? 164
Jacob Öberg
- Obstacles to supranational operational police powers in the European union: 182
Europol reform and the construction of trust between national police authorities
Kerttuli Lingenfelter and Samuli Miettinen
- The journey of EU criminal law on the ship of fools – what are the implications 192
for supranational governance of EU criminal justice agencies?
Christopher Harding and Jacob Öberg
- EPPO and a common sense of justice 212
Thomas Elholm
- The development of Europol's external relations: Towards supranationalism? 229
Sarah Léonard and Christian Kaunert
- European prosecution between cooperation and integration: The European Public 245
Prosecutor's Office and the rule of law
Valsamis Mitsilegas
- The EPPO and the pitfalls of actuarial justice 265
Marianne L Wade