

Contents

	Introduction: Legitimacy – East and West	1
1	Legitimacy and state	9
	Chinese “arcana imperii (secret of statecraft)”	9
	The Rites Controversy and today’s world	19
2	Legitimacy and oriental despotism	27
	Raison d’etat	27
	The Montesquieuian Moment	34
	The foundations of Chinese political thought	38
	The Cold War variations	46
3	Fictional legitimacy	53
	“Social contract”	53
	Liberalism	67
4	Presentation and representation: A republican dilemma	77
	Republic without plebiscite	77
	Legitimacy as presentation	82
	Republic as representation	84
	Republic as utopia	91
5	The deeds legitimacy: economic performance: State and economy	96
	The Weberian moment	100
	Legitimacy and monetary	109

6 Externalizing the Mandate of Heaven	119
Cognitive framework	119
China between Rome and Greece	127
The Neo-Enlightenment rhetoric on China	133
 Concluding remarks: restarting cultural dialogue	 142
 Bibliography	 145
Index	151