

CONTENTS

About the Editors	viii
Contributors	x
Foreword	xiv
Abbreviations	xvi
 Introduction: Dramatis Personae	 1
Donette Murray
 1 A Convergence of Territory: Warlords, Rebels and Terrorists in the Modern African State	 22
Caroline Varin
 2 Who Gets to Fight? The De-Legitimation of Mercenaries and the Search for the Ideal Polity	 40
Helene Olsen
 3 Thinking Beyond the Divide: The Complex Relationships Between State / Non-State Armed Actors in Syria's War	 62
Helle Malmvig
 4 Violent Non-State Actors Write Their Own Laws of War	 85
Jack Watling
 5 The Yemen Conflict at Sea: Houthi Maritime Operations and Strategic Reconfiguration in the Gulf of Aden	 106
James A. Fargher

6	Warfare by Proxy: Russia's Use of Violent Non-State Actors in Syria Marina Miron	128
7	Uneasy Alliances: The Political Consequences of Arming Non-State Groups in Counter-Terrorism Campaigns Abigail Watson	151
8	The Evolving Character of Violent Non-State Actors in Modern Conflict: Perspectives from the Stabilisation Unit, Army Legal Services and the Land Warfare Centre Julien Bastrup-Birk, Grant Davies and Matthew Walker	182
	Conclusion: Violent Non-State Actors, Silences, Binaries, Multiplication of Sovereignities? Norma Rossi and Malte Riemann	208
	Index	226