

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction: Stardom in the 1960s PAMELA ROBERTSON WOJCIK	i
I Paul Newman: Superstardom and Anti-Stardom CHRISTINE BECKER	14
2 Elizabeth Taylor: The Biggest Star in the World ALEXANDER DOTY	34
3 Dustin Hoffman: As Artistic as Possible DANIEL SMITH-ROWSEY	55
4 Steve McQueen: Cool, Combative, and Disconnected INA RAE HARK	71
5 Mia Farrow: Categorically Intangible LESLIE H. ABRAMSON	91
6 Peter Sellers: A Figure of the Impasse CYNTHIA BARON	115
7 Julie Andrews: Practically Too Perfect in Every Way DENNIS BINGHAM	139
8 Sidney Poitier: It Is No Great Joy to Be a Symbol ARTHUR KNIGHT	160
9 Brigitte Bardot: From International Star to Fashion Icon KELLEY CONWAY	183
10 Edie Sedgwick: Girl of the Year CHRISTOPHER SIEVING	202
II Eva and Zsa Zsa Gabor: Hungary Meets Hillbilly U.S.A. DIANE PECKNOLD	224
In the Wings PAMELA ROBERTSON WOJCIK	250
Works Cited	255
Contributors	263
Index	265