

CONTENTS

Introduction: Creating a Cosmopolitics of Climate Change	1
Rosalyn Bold
Broken Pillars of the Sky: Masewal Actions and Reflections on Modernity, Spirits, and a Damaged World	29
Alessandro Questa
Fragile Time: The Redemptive Force of the Urarina Apocalypse	51
Harry Walker
The End of Days: Climate Change, Mythistory, and Cosmological Notions of Regeneration	71
Stefan Permanto
Contamination, Climate Change, and Cosmopolitical Resonance in Kaata, Bolivia	91
Rosalyn Bold
Shifting Strategies: The Myth of Wanamei and the Amazon Indigenous REDD+ Programme in Madre de Dios, Peru	115
Chantelle Murtagh

A Territory to Sustain the World(s): From Local Awareness and Practice to the Global Crisis	141
Carolina Comandulli
Relational Ecologists Facing “the End of a World”: Inner Transition, Ecospirituality, and the Ontological Debate	161
Jean Chamel
This Mess Is a “World”! Environmental Diplomats in the Mud of Anthropology	183
Aníbal G. Arregui
Epilogue: Indigenous Worlds and Planetary Futures	203
Bronislaw Szerszynski
Correction to: Fragile Time: The Redemptive Force of the Urarina Apocalypse	C1
Harry Walker
Index	211