

Contents

List of Contributors	vi
Introduction: New Rhetoric's Tattered Examples Peter Goodrich	1
1. Exemplarity and the Resonance of Reasoning Mark Antaki	9
2. In and 'Out of Joint', In and Out of the Norm: On Rhetoric and Law Angela Condello	28
3. From the Norms–Facts Dichotomy to the System–Problem Connection in the Judicial Realisation of Law: Logical Deduction v. Analogical Judgment in Adjudication Ana Margarida Simões Gaudêncio	37
4. Multiculturalism and Criminal Law: Between the Universal and the Particular Leandro Santos Da Guarda	50
5. Cognitive Populism: A Semiotic Reading of the Dialectics Type/Token Massimo Leone	66
6. Exemplarity as Concreteness, or the Challenge of Institutionalising a Productive Circle between Past and Present, Old and New José Manuel Aroso Linhares	83
7. What is Happening to the Norm? Gender as Paradigm of a Deformalised Neo-legal Positivism Silvia Niccolai	101
8. Hypothetically Speaking: How to Argue about Meaning Karen Petroski	119
9. Showing by Fiction: Audience of Extra-legal References in Judicial Decisions Terezie Smejkalová	139
10. Law as a System of Topoi : Sources of Arguments v. Sources of Law Anita Soboleva	156
Index	171