

Contents

About the Editors	ix
About the Authors	xi
Preface	xix
For the Reader	xxi

Section I Toward Creativity and Collaborative Learning in the 21st Century

Toward Whole Schools: Building a Movement for Creativity and Collaborative Learning in the 21st Century

J. Michael Peterson 1

1 Democratic Education and the Creation of a Loving and Just Community
Kathleen Kesson, Christopher J. Koliba, and Kate Paxton 3

2 Families as Creative and Resourceful Collaborators in Inclusive Schooling
Barbara E. Buswell and C. Beth Schaffner 13

3 Beyond Benevolence: Supporting Genuine Friendships in Inclusive Schools
Emma Van der Klift and Norman Kunc 21

4 Building Connections
Mary A. Falvey, Marsha S. Forest, Jack Pearpoint, and Richard L. Rosenberg 29

5 Strategies for Creating Multicultural and Pluralistic Societies: A Mind Is a Wonderful Thing to Develop
Gwendolyn C. Webb-Johnson 55

6 Teaching for Liberation: Promising Practices from Critical Pedagogy
Paula Kluth, Rosario Diaz-Greenberg, Jacqueline S. Thousand, and Ann I. Nevin 71

7 Access to the General Education Curriculum for All: The Universal Design Process
Alice Udvari-Solner, Richard A. Villa, and Jacqueline S. Thousand 85

Section II Perspectives on Creativity and Collaborative Learning

Cooperative Group Learning as a Form of Creativity
Alice M.L. Quiocho 105

8 Problem-Solving Methods to Facilitate Inclusive Education
Michael F. Giangreco, Chigee J. Cloninger, Ruth E. Dennis, and Susan W. Edelman 111

9 Supporting Students with Troubling Behavior
Richard A. Villa, Jonathan Udis, and Jacqueline S. Thousand 135

10	Awareness Plans for Facilitating Creative Thinking Herbert L. Leff, Jacqueline S. Thousand, Ann I. Nevin, and Alice M.L. Quiocho	157
11	Why Understanding the Theoretical Basis of Cooperative Learning Enhances Teaching Success Frank B. Murray	175
12	Cooperative and Collaborative Learning: An Integrative Perspective Neil Davidson	181
13	Ensuring Diversity Is Positive: Cooperative Community, Constructive Conflict, and Civic Values David W. Johnson and Roger T. Johnson	197
14	Cooperative Learning and Inclusion Mara Sapon-Shevin, Barbara J. Ayres, and Janet Duncan	209
15	Student Disruptions in the Cooperative Classroom: Experiences in a New Brunswick, Canada, School District Brian Kelly	223
16	Using Peer Tutoring to Prevent Early Reading Failure Kristen L. McMaster, Douglas Fuchs, and Lynn S. Fuchs	235
17	Partner Learning: The Power Source for Students, Schools, and Communities Mary E. McNeil and Antonette W. Hood	247
Section III Putting Creativity and Collaborative Learning into Practice: Strategies and Lesson Plans
	Creativity Ann I. Nevin, Jacqueline S. Thousand, and Richard A. Villa	267
18	Partner Learning Systems Laurie LaPlant and Nadine Zane	271
19	The Role of Students in Resolving Conflict Fred Schruppf and Golie G. Jansen	283
20	One Divided by Two or More: Redefining the Role of a Cooperative Education Team Richard A. Villa and Jacqueline S. Thousand	303
21	Cooperative Group Lesson Plans Ann I. Nevin, Jacqueline S. Thousand, and Richard A. Villa	325
22	Creating and Supporting Peer Tutor Partnerships in Secondary Schools Pamela J. Villalobos, Deborah Tweit-Hull, and Amie Wong	379
23	Creating and Supporting Peer Tutor Partnerships: Lesson Plans Pamela J. Villalobos, Deborah Tweit-Hull, and Amie Wong	405
24	Empowering Secondary Students to Take the Lead: Training Activities to Promote Advocacy, Inclusion, and Social Justice Pamela J. Villalobos, Lori Eshilian, and Jeff Moyer	431
	Afterword	465
	Index	467