

Trends in Organized Crime

Volume 24 · Number 1 · March 2021

Special Issue: Organised Crime and Money Laundering Policies in Action: International Reflections

Special Issue Editors: Michael Levi and Georgios A. Antonopoulos

ARTICLES/BRIEF COMMUNICATIONS

‘Through a glass darkly’: organised crime and money laundering policy reflections - *an introduction to the special issue

M. Levi · G.A. Antonopoulos 1

Incapacity, pathology, or expediency? Revisiting accounts of data and analysis weaknesses underpinning international efforts to combat organised crime

S. Xenakis 6

The rise of shaming paternalism in Japan: recent tendencies in the Japanese criminal justice system

M. Baradel 23

Criminal procedure reform and the impact on homicide: evidence from Mexico

E.T. Huebert 42

A world fit for money laundering: the Atlantic alliance’s undermining of organized crime control

M.A. Young · M. Woodiwiss 70

Making sense of professional enablers’ involvement in laundering organized crime proceeds and of their regulation

M. Levi 96

EXCERPTS

Criminal assets recovery in Sweden 111