

Contents

| | |
|--|-----------|
| Preface—Author's Note | x |
| Introduction | 1 |
| 1 The Language of Change: Motion in Time | 13 |
| Change as Recurrence and Renewal | 14 |
| Change as Teleology, Change as Growth | 17 |
| Change as Progress, Change as Becoming Modern | 20 |
| Change as Development, Change as Modernity | 26 |
| Change as Human Nature, Change as Nature | 30 |
| Discussion | 35 |
| Notes | 37 |
| 2 Modern Industrial Capitalist Society, 1820–1914 | 38 |
| Karl Marx: Historical Materialist, Communist | 39 |
| Émile Durkheim: Conservative Centrist Theorist of Social Nature | 49 |
| Max Weber: Critic, Nationalist, Historical Political Economist | 57 |
| Discussion | 67 |
| Notes | 69 |
| 3 Imperialism and the National, Colonial, and Agrarian Questions, 1890–1929 | 71 |
| Imperialism: Conquest Abroad, Repression at Home | 72 |
| The National Question: Nations, Nationalism, and National Minorities | 85 |
| The Colonial Question: Settlers, National Minorities, and Indigenous Peoples | 95 |
| The Agrarian Question: Peasants and Rural Economic Change | 99 |
| From Social Evolution to Uneven and Combined Development | 106 |
| Discussion | 109 |
| Notes | 113 |

| | | |
|----------|---|------------|
| 4 | Capitalism in Crisis and the Search for Social Order, 1918–1945 | 115 |
| | Economic Crises, Cycles, or Evolution? 116 | |
| | Capitalism in Crisis: Social Reform or Socialist Revolution? 120 | |
| | Rural Class Structures and Alternative Paths of Agrarian Development 129 | |
| | Articulation, Integration, and the Constitution of Multi-Nation Nation-States 138 | |
| | Crisis, Conflict, and the Quest for Social Order 142 | |
| | Discussion 151 | |
| | Notes 152 | |
| 5 | The Cold War, Decolonization, and the Third World, 1945–1970 | 153 |
| | Theories of Economic Growth and Modernization 155 | |
| | Underdevelopment, Dependency, and the Modern World System 164 | |
| | Unequal Exchange, the Imperialism of International Trade, and the Political Economy of Multinational Corporate Capital 172 | |
| | Modes of Production in Third World Societies 177 | |
| | The Transition Question from Feudalism to Capitalism 182 | |
| | Precipitants of Transitions 188 | |
| | Anti-Colonialism, National Liberation Movements, and New Nations 188 | |
| | Rural Development, Social Revolution, and Peasant Communities 194 | |
| | Transitions between Capitalism and Socialism and Vice Versa 199 | |
| | Discussion 200 | |
| | Notes 201 | |
| 6 | The World in Crisis, 1970–2017 | 203 |
| | An Overview of Social Formation in an Age of Continual Crises 206 | |
| | Neoliberalism and the Current Crisis 212 | |
| | Neoliberalism as a Theory of Society 212 | |
| | Neoliberalism as an Ideology 213 | |
| | Neoliberalism and its Political Agenda 214 | |
| | Globalization and the New Imperialism 217 | |
| | Globalization Theory 217 | |
| | The New Imperialism and Global Capitalism 222 | |
| | Postmodernism, Postmodernity, and Governmentality 232 | |
| | Postmodernism 232 | |
| | Postmodernity 233 | |
| | Governmentality 236 | |

The Dissolution of Socialism, the Rise of Post-Socialism 239

Nationalism, the Nation, and Nation-States 247

Nationalism and the Nation 248

Post-coloniality, Nationality, and Modernity 251

Crisis, Identity, and Populism 255

Global Capitalism and World Environmental Crisis 262

Discussion 266

Notes 270

References

271

Index

305