

Contents

Unit	Grammar	Vocabulary	Reading
01 Entertain me page 4	question forms; prepositional phrases	entertainment; reading; going out and staying in	Women put away their handkerchiefs and turn to crime An interview with Daniel Craig gapped text
02 Family and friends page 12	present tenses; quite, a bit, etc.	family and relationships; suffixes; describing people	Culture shock gapped text
03 Lifestyles page 20	making comparisons; reflexives	lifestyles and homes; feng shui; at home	Living on a boat multiple choice The Dutch garden house
04 Get away from it all page 28	overview of past tenses; time conjunctions	outdoor activities; travel and transport; words with similar meaning	Biking in Ecuador gapped text Holiday horror stories
05 Play to win page 36	obligation and permission; would and (be/get) used to	sports; competing; success; British and American English	Sporting lives multiple matching
06 Put it down to experience page 44	so/such; too/enough ; present perfect simple and continuous	stages of life; dependent prepositions; clothes	An unusual childhood gapped text It's never too late
07 Science fact, science fiction page 52	like versus as ; overview of future forms	science, inventions and discoveries; intensifiers; prefixes	Time travel Useless inventions word formation
08 Food for thought page 60	countable and uncountable nouns; articles	food and cooking; compound adjectives	Cooking on the job multiple choice
09 The world around us page 68	participle clauses; expressing purpose	nature and the environment; weather; animals and nature	Walking holidays multiple matching
10 Talk, don't talk page 76	adverbs; causative have and get	communicating; blogging; ways of speaking	Mobile phone etiquette multiple choice
11 Cash in hand page 84	relative clauses; if structures	money; numbers	Money makes the world go round multiple matching
12 Does crime really pay? page 92	reported speech; reporting verbs	crime; prefixes	Computer security matching
13 Weird and wonderful page 100	possibility and certainty; -ing forms and infinitives	mysteries; feelings	A ghost story multiple choice
14 Work to live page 108	passives; ability	jobs and work; phrasal verbs (work); interviews	No jobs for life open cloze The musicians of Bremen word formation Britain's oldest worker gapped text
15 State of mind page 116	hypothetical meaning; verb–subject agreement	psychology ; idioms with mind	Happiness multiple matching Exam memories multiple-choice cloze

Listening	Writing	Speaking
a chat show interview	a film review	expressing opinions Pronunciation: intonation in questions family life multiple matching	an informal email/letter	friendship; fillers Pronunciation: quite, a bit , etc.
survival instinct	an essay	comparing photos
a trip to south-east Asia sentence completion	a short story	travel the Asian Games multiple choice	a report	expressing opinions life experiences multiple matching	a letter/email	giving full answers Pronunciation: linking words science fiction	an article	speculating eating habits multiple matching	a letter/email	organising your ideas Pronunciation: vowel sounds Antarctica multiple choice	a book review	comparing photos: animals and people a report	responding politely; speaking strategies
LETS sentence completion	an email	talking about hypothetical situations crime report sentence completion	an essay	Pronunciation: crime words ways of speculating keeping a conversation going multiple choice	a story	conversation strategies a lifetime in one company multiple matching	an application letter	justifying choices an article	comparing photos Pronunciation: word stress