

CONTENTS

Table of Cases	xiii
Table of Statutes	xv
Table of European Cases	xxi
Table of European Legislation	xxiii

1. Introduction: Setting the Scene	1
Tensions between Markets and Competition Law
and Public Service: The International Dimension	4
Tensions between Competitive Markets and Public
Service: Some UK Examples	7
The Scheme of the Book	14
Conclusions	16
2. Competition Law, Citizenship Rights, and
Social Solidarity	17
The Justifications for Competition Law	17
Competitive Markets and Public Services	20
Can Competition Law Internalize Public Service Values?	24
Citizenship Rights and Public Services	28
Social Solidarity and the Role of the State	35
Conclusion	37
3. The UK Approach to Competition Law and
Public Services	39
The Common Law	39
Public Ownership	41
Privatization and Regulation	44
The New Competition Law	47
The Regulators' Concurrent Powers	52
The BetterCare Decision	54
Special Treatment for Public Services	57
Conclusions	64

4. Regulation and the New UK Public Service Law	66
Introduction	66
The Regulators' Statutory Duties	67
Social and Environmental Guidance and Consumer Representation	74
Social Regulation in Practice	77
Conclusion	93
5. The Continental Tradition of Public Service	96
Introduction	96
France	98
Italy	113
6. Public Service and European Community Law	121
Introduction	121
State Monopolies and Article 31	124
The General Rules of Competition Law and Article 86	125
Services of General Economic Interest and the Article 86(2) Exception	132
Public Services and State Aids	141
The Choice of the Holder of Exclusive Rights and the Recipient of State Aids	149
Conclusion	151
7. Services of General Interest, the Commission, and Reform	153
Introduction	153
The Background: Conflicting Values and Models	153
The 1996 Communication on Services of General Interest in Europe	156
The Amsterdam Treaty	159
The 2000 Communication on Services of General Interest in Europe	161
Developments Since the 2000 Communication: Towards a Framework Directive?	163
The 2003 Green Paper	165
Consultation and the White Paper	169

The Convention and the Constitutional Treaty	171
Conclusion	172
8. European Liberalization and Public Service Obligations	174
Introduction	174
Telecommunications and Electronic Communications	177
The Energy Sector	188
Postal Services	198
Transport	203
Conclusions	205
9. Public Service Broadcasting: A Special Case	207
Introduction	207
The Meaning of Public Service Broadcasting	208
European Law and Public Service Broadcasting	211
Public Service Broadcasting in the UK	222
Conclusions	232
10. Conclusions	235
Conflicting Values	235
The Role of Public Service Law	237
Choosing the Public Service Provider and Supervisory Institutions	241
Concluding Remarks	244
Bibliography	247
Index	257