

Table of Contents

Foreword	1
Jan Reichenbach
International Research Collaboration on Variable Rate Pricing in Urban Waste Management	3
Petr Šauer — Libuše Přibilová
Pay as You Throw: an Attempt at Quantitative Comparison of Czech and German Experiences	12
Miroslav Hájek
Green Tax Reform and its Role in Promoting Sustainable Development: German and Czech Experience	23
Maria Urbaniec
Environmental Education in the Czech Republic, Germany and Poland and an Innovative Curriculum for Environmentally-oriented Management	34
Petr Šauer
New Study Program on Environmental Economics, Policy and Management and Ideas for International Cooperation and Use of Modern Teaching Methods	49
Dorothe Lütkemöller
Municipal Environmental Protection by Means of Further Education: Experiences of a German — Latvian Cooperation Project	56
Aleš Lisa
Environmental Education, Case Teaching, and Summer Schools: a Potential for International Cooperation, Information and Experience Transfer	68

Prof. Walter Leal Filho
Scientific and Educational Cooperation via Publications: the Sustainability Series	75
Jaroslav Klusák – Klára Quasnitzová
Water Negotiation-dams on the Elbe River	84
Jan Reichenbach
The Saxon Example of an Information and Education Network on Industrial Waste Management and its Potentials for a Cross-border Co-operation	96
Contact Addresses of the Authors	101