

SUMMARY

Introduction: Helena Nosková, Petr Bednařík	5
I. Chapter
Forms of Identity	9
1. Mara Kiope
About Perception of "the Eternal Latvia" Research Experience of Relations between National Identity and Concept of Time	11
2. Vladimir I. Mukomel
Adaptation and Integration of Representatives of Migrant Minorities in Russia	24
3. Vladislav Volkov
Collective Actors of the Interethnic Dialogue in Latvia	37
4. Petr Bednařík
Perception of the Jewish Identity in Czechoslovakia during the 20th Century	49
II. Chapter
National Minorities, Identity, Culture, Education	57
1. Nina Pavelčíková
On Some Problems of the Roma Identity in the Czech Republic: Conflicts between the Community with the Traditional Cultural Relics and the Modern Society	59
2. Inese Runce
The Issue of Ethnic Minorities through the Prism of Relations between the State and the Church in Latvia in the 20-s and 30-s of the 20th Century: the Case of Latvian Lutheran Church	65
3. Nadezhda Pazuhina
The "Native-History" (Rodnaya Starina) through the Glimpse of Latvian Old Believers: Problems of Cultural Identity in Poly-cultural Milieu	77
4. Jan Knejp
Qualitatively Orientated Research on Selected Historical Aspects of the Integration Process of Ostrava Roma from Eastern Slovakia	90

III. Chapter

Specific Questions of Identity	105
1. Andrianna Skorobogataya Abkhazia: 17 Years of „Independence“	107
2. Solveiga Krumina - Konkova Possibilities to Apply the Border Theory when Analyzing Multicultural Identity of Religious Minorities.....	113
3. Helena Nosková The History of Border Regions and the Search for an Identity	123
4. Igors Gubenko Subverting the Logic of Identity: Deconstruction at Work in Iris Marion Young's Politics of Difference	147
 Authors, editorial consultants, reviewers	 157