

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION 9

Pavčina Springerová

Lenka Špičkanová

Jan Němec

WINNERS AND LOSERS:

A historian's view of Latin American democracy and elections 19

Jan Klíma

STATESMEN IN UNIFORMS:

Several notes about militarism in politics in the modern history of the Latin America 29

Jiří Chalupa

MEXICO 2006 ELECTIONS:

A democratic consolidation? 41

Petra Měšťánková

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS IN PERU:

„The second chance“ for the moderate left 61

Lenka Špičkanová

CHILEAN PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS 2006:

The last win of the left? 79

Jan Haisman

BRAZIL:

„Mid-term“ executive elections 2006

and continuous fragmentation of the party system 95

Jan Němec

VENEZUELAN PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION 2006:

Sin novedades 115

Radek Buben

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS IN BOLIVIA 2005:

„Elección de combate“ 135

Pavčina Springerová

INTRODUCTION

THE 2006 ECUADORIAN ELECTIONS:

A radical shift to the left? 155

Petr Somogyi

THE 2006 ELECTIONS IN NICARAGUA:

Does the sandinista return to power threaten Nicaragua's democracy? 165

Karel Kouba

FROM "OPEN REGIONALISM" TO THE UNION OF SOUTH AMERICAN NATIONS:

Crisis and change in Latin American regional integration 187

José Antonio Sanahuja

DRIFTING APART:

Old and new cleavages in Latin America 211

Andrés Malamud

CONCLUSION:

Latin America on the crossroad? 225

Vladimíra Dvořáková