

CONTENTS

Foreword	16
--------------------	----

I.

WORKS OF ART AND THEIR FATES.

WHO DID THEY BELONG TO?

Original owners of art works and their fates

Chair: Jan Munk

MILOŠ KADLEC:

Practical Experiences with the Restitution of the Contents of the State-Owned Sychrov Chateau	20
--	----

EWA MORK:

The Fate of the Norwegian Jewish Community During the Holocaust: Documentation and presentation at the Centre for the Study of the Holocaust and Religious Minorities in Oslo	26
--	----

JIŘINA NOVÁKOVÁ:

The Jindřich Waldes Museum	33
--------------------------------------	----

JĀNIS KALNAČS:

Mērija Grīnberga Junior's Journey with Latvian Museum and Archive Collections (October 1944–February 1946)	34
---	----

HELENA KREJČOVÁ:

Post-War Restitutions in Czechoslovakia and Related Problems.	43
--	----

II.

JUSTICE RESTORED?

A legal view of restitution—individual cases

Chair: Tomáš Kraus

PATRICK J. BOYLAN:

The Mediation Policy of the International Council of Museums (ICOM) and Restitution Claims	66
---	----

ALEŠ PEJCHAL: Problems of Restitution According to Act no. 212/2000	73
LUCIEN KALFON: The Situation in France—Between Restitution and Compensation	80
OLAF OSSMANN: Persecution-Related Deprivation of Property: 'Verfolgungsbedingter Vermögensverlust' as a Basis for Restitution and Compensation Law in Germany	86
KAMIL ZEIDLER: How to Get and not to Give. About Injustice in Restitutions	93
JAN TH. BANK: Restitution Policy in the Netherlands 2002–2006: The Koenigs collection and the Goudstikker case	99

III.

THE PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE OF LOST BOOKS,
LIBRARIES AND MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.
Searching for and identifying lost books, libraries and musical instruments. Research methods in different countries
Chair: Jiří Kocian

SEM CHRISTIAN SUTTER: The Fate of Books Confiscated in the Möbel-Aktion	102
DARIO TEDESCHI: The Libraries of the Jewish Community of Rome and the Italian Rabbinical College Looted By the Nazis: The work of the Commission set up for research by the Italian Government	114
PATRICIA GRIMSTED: Sudeten Crossroads for Europe's Displaced Books: The 'Mysterious Twilight' of the RSHA Amt VII Library and the Fate of a Million Victims of War	123

EVELYN ADUNKA: Recent Developments in 2006-7 in the Restitution and Research of Looted Books in Austria.	181
--	-----

VERONIKA PROCHÁZKOVÁ: The Saraval Legacy	187
---	-----

IV.

WILL LOST ART BE FOUND?

Searching for and identifying lost and confiscated art.

Research methods in different countries

Chair: Helena Koenigsmarková

ANNA B. RUBIN: The Holocaust Claims Processing Office: A decade of unearthing the missing pieces.	194
---	-----

SHAUNA ISAAC: The Role of Technologies in Finding Looted Art	205
---	-----

TINA KOIVULAHTI: Provenance Research and Finnish Collections	213
---	-----

UWE HARTMANN: “Red Flags” and “Missing Links”: A short report about the experience of the German Lost Art Project in opening and publishing provenance research resources	220
--	-----

SARAH JACKSON: The Art Loss Register—A Tool for Provenance Research	221
--	-----

V.

A WAY BACK?

Export permits for art works

Chair: Pavel Jirásek

ALEKSANDRA MURRE: The Return of a Painting By Albrecht Dürer “John the Baptist”
--	--

from the Art Museum of Estonia to its former Owner Bremen Kunsthalle	230
JAROMÍR KALUS: Restitution of Art Belonging to Holocaust Victims in the Context of the History of the Silesian Museum in Opava	235
VI.
THE FIRST PIECES IN THE MOSAIC.
Archives and their role in clarifying the origin of confiscated works of art
Chair: Helena Krejčová
HANNA PIRINEN:
National Boundaries and International Challenges in Documentation of Sources of Provenance Research	248
VÁCLAV ERBEN:
The Prague National Gallery Archive—An Important Source of Knowledge on Art Works Stolen During the Occupation	251
MICHEL VERMOTE:
In Search of Information Lost in Facts: Archival research concerning Belgian cultural losses during WWII	263
MONIKA SEDLÁKOVÁ:
Archive Sources on Confiscations and Restitutions of Jewish Property in the National Archive: Items of Artistic Value	270
Authors	279
Contacts	291