

CONTENTS

Foreword . . . . .	9
--------------------	---

Part One. The Socialist International of Youth, 1907-1940

I. Emergence of the Socialist Youth Movement . . . . .	15
II. At the Crossroads . . . . .	24
III. Division and Reunion, 1919-1923 . . . . .	29
IV. From Hamburg to Lille, 1923-1940 . . . . .	43

Part Two. The Founding of the International Union of Socialist Youth (IUSY), 1941-1946

I. Preparation . . . . .	61
II. The Constituent Congress in Paris, 1946 . . . . .	81
III. The Way to Unity, 1946-1948 . . . . .	103

Part Three. Against Colonialism

I. First Steps, 1948-1951 . . . . .	133
II. A Strengthening of Ties, 1951-1954 . . . . .	148
III. Asia, 1954-1966 . . . . .	166
IV. Algeria . . . . .	187
V. Africa, 1954-1966 . . . . .	197
VI. Latin America . . . . .	208

Part Four. Communism and the Problems of Europe

I. The Communist Challenge . . . . .	225
II. European Youth Cooperation . . . . .	251

Part Five. The International Union of Socialist Youth

I. Nature; Organization; Functions; and Ideology . . . . .	273
Conclusion. From the Recruiting School to Political Independence, 1907-1966 . . . . .	303
Appendix . . . . .	311
Bibliography . . . . .	317
Index . . . . .	325