

Contents

|                                                                                                                                 |     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Preface                                                                                                                  |     |
| J. Alex Bouček .....                                                                                                     | vi  |
| Introduction                                                                                                         |     |
| Lewis M. White .....                                                                                                     | 1   |
| Polish Campaign, 1939; Final Days in France,June 1940                                                         |     |
| Miloslav Kašpar .....                                                                                                    | 9   |
| Those Months in France                                                                                                   |     |
| Zdenek Kordina .....                                                                                                     | 23  |
| In Pursuit of Liberation                                                                                                 |     |
| František Ostrý .....                                                                                                    | 41  |
| On the French Front                                                                                                      |     |
| Josef Souček .....                                                                                                       | 53  |
| The 1940 Evacuation of Czechoslovak Forcesfrom France                                                         |     |
| Zdenek Kordina .....                                                                                                     | 63  |
| The Crisis of the Czechoslovak Army in Englandin the Second Half of 1940                                      |     |
| Jaroslav Němec .....                                                                                                     | 83  |
| We Were in the Battle of Britain                                                                                         |     |
| Alexander Hess .....                                                                                                     | 95  |
| A Stint with the 311th (Czechoslovak) Squadron,Royal Air Force                                                |     |
| John Gellner .....                                                                                                       | 103 |
| Remembering the 311th (Czechoslovak) Squadron,within the RAF Bomber Command(August 1940–June 1942) |     |
| Herbert Němec .....                                                                                                      | 109 |
| The Czechoslovak Air Force in War                                                                                        |     |
| Mira A. Liškutín .....                                                                                                   | 125 |

Tobruk as Seen from the Trenches:

|                              |     |
|------------------------------|-----|
| Introduction                 |     |
| Jaroslav Polach ..... | 143 |

|                            |     |
|----------------------------|-----|
| Tobruk                     |     |
| Alfred French ..... | 146 |

|                             |     |
|-----------------------------|-----|
| Memories of Tobruk          |     |
| Robert Kellner ..... | 152 |

|                              |     |
|------------------------------|-----|
| Observation Point #19        |     |
| Jaroslav Polach ..... | 154 |

|                                         |     |
|-----------------------------------------|-----|
| History of the Parachutist Group CARBON |     |
| František Bogataj .....          | 161 |

|                                                                                                                |     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Remembering the Commanding Officerof the Parachutist Group WOLFRAMand its Operations in the Enemy Rear |     |
| Robert Matula .....                                                                                     | 175 |

|                                                                           |     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| The 1944–45 Siege of Dunkirk by theFirst Czechoslovak Armored Brigade |     |
| Bohuslav Šulc .....                                                | 193 |

|                            |     |
|----------------------------|-----|
| Prisoner of Prisoners      |     |
| Bohuslav Šulc ..... | 205 |

|                              |     |
|------------------------------|-----|
| Me Too                       |     |
| Barbara Podoski ..... | 217 |

|                                                                           |     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| General Ludvík Svoboda: Czechoslovak Patriotor Communist Collaborator |     |
| Miroslav Kerner .....                                              | 231 |

|                                    |     |
|------------------------------------|-----|
| General Svoboda from Another Angle |     |
| Jaroslav Němec .....        | 245 |

|                                    |     |
|------------------------------------|-----|
| Fencing with Fate                  |     |
| Frank Vohryzek-Vernon ..... | 255 |

|                                        |     |
|----------------------------------------|-----|
| Commander of the Liberated Territories |     |
| Lewis M. White .....            | 265 |

|                   |     |
|-------------------|-----|
| Biographies ..... | 281 |
|-------------------|-----|