

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments · xi

|           |  |    |
|-----------|--|----|
| CHAPTER 1 | Introduction   | 1  |
|           | The Argument in Brief                         | 3  |
|           | A Brief Illustration: The WTO                 | 11 |
|           | A Road Map                                    | 14 |
| CHAPTER 2 | Global Ideological Conflict: Concept and Measurement | 17 |
|           | What Are International Institutions?          | 18 |
|           | What Is Ideology?                             | 19 |
|           | Ideology in the IR Literature                        | 19 |
|           | Definition   | 21 |
|           | What Are Global Ideological Divisions About?         | 22 |
|           | Ideology and Constraint                       | 25 |
|           | Measuring Ideological Positions               | 28 |
|           | Using UN Votes to Estimate State Ideal Points        | 29 |
|           | Ideal Point Estimation                               | 32 |
|           | The Correlates of UN Ideal Points                    | 37 |
|           | Conclusion                                    | 39 |
| CHAPTER 3 | Ideology and Theories of International Institutions  | 41 |
|           | Functionalism and Its Descendants             | 42 |
|           | Rational Institutionalism                     | 46 |
|           | Liberal Internationalism                      | 48 |
|           | Constructivism                                | 51 |
|           | Conclusion                                    | 53 |

|           |  |     |
|-----------|--|-----|
| CHAPTER 4 | A Spatial Modeling Framework                                       | 54  |
|           | A Simple Spatial Model with Interdependence                 | 54  |
|           | An Example with Two States                                  | 57  |
|           | High Interdependence (No Enforcement Problems)                     | 58  |
|           | Moderate Interdependence   | 63  |
|           | Multiple Actors   | 65  |
|           | Conclusions   | 69  |
| CHAPTER 5 | Expertise, Ideology, and Distributive Politics                     | 70  |
|           | The Informational Model                                     | 71  |
|           | Information Acquisition                                     | 74  |
|           | Shared Interests   | 74  |
|           | Heterogeneous State Interests                                      | 76  |
|           | Information Sharing and Interpretation                      | 78  |
|           | Trust and Distrust in Experts amid Ideological Conflict     | 83  |
|           | The Trustee Ideal  | 84  |
|           | Trust, Institutions, and Verifiability                             | 86  |
|           | Conclusion  | 88  |
| CHAPTER 6 | Ideological Structure and Membership in International Institutions | 90  |
|           | Ideology and IGO Memberships                                | 91  |
|           | Ideological Sorting into IGOs                                      | 94  |
|           | A Regression Analysis  | 98  |
|           | Alliances   | 100 |
|           | Network Analysis and Ideological Structure                  | 104 |
|           | Conclusion  | 106 |

|           |  |     |
|-----------|--|-----|
| CHAPTER 7 | Ideology, Institutions, Power, and Militarized Disputes                | 108 |
|           | Information, Commitment, and Bargaining Failure                 | 110 |
|           | A Distributive Ideological Theory                               | 113 |
|           | Ideology and the Portfolio of IGO Memberships                          | 114 |
|           | The Dual Effects of Well-Functioning Exclusionary IGOs                 | 114 |
|           | Observable Implications  | 117 |
|           | Data and Method   | 118 |
|           | Results   | 120 |
|           | Major Power Status and Contiguity                                      | 120 |
|           | Replications   | 122 |
|           | IGO Portfolios   | 125 |
|           | Conclusion  | 127 |
| CHAPTER 8 | Ideology and the Investment Regime                                     | 130 |
|           | Ideological Conflict and the Emergence of the Investment Regime | 132 |
|           | The Move to Investment Treaties                                 | 138 |
|           | Evidence from U.S. BIT Programs  | 140 |
|           | Moving beyond the Dyad   | 142 |
|           | Renegotiation   | 144 |
|           | Conclusion  | 146 |
| CHAPTER 9 | Populism and Backlashes against International Courts                   | 148 |
|           | What Are Backlashes against International Courts?               | 150 |
|           | Explanations for Backlash                                       | 154 |
|           | Implementation Costs   | 154 |
|           | Democratization  | 155 |

|            |  |     |
|------------|--|-----|
|            | Populism and the International Judiciary                          | 156 |
|            | What Is Populism?  | 157 |
|            | Why (International) Court RulingsSometimes Upset Populists           | 158 |
|            | Populism and Resistance to the Authorityof International Courts      | 160 |
|            | Empirical Evidence  | 161 |
|            | How Many Backlashes Are Initiated by    Populist Leaders?    | 162 |
|            | Property Rights   | 163 |
|            | Minority Rights and Identity                                      | 166 |
|            | Conclusions and Implications                                      | 170 |
| CHAPTER 10 | Conclusion: Implications for the LiberalInternational Order          | 173 |
|            | Ideology and Multilateralism                                      | 173 |
|            | Ideological Challenges to the Liberal    Institutional Order | 177 |
|            | Notes · 183  |     |
|            | Bibliography · 209   |     |
|            | Index · 239  |     |