

CONTENTS

ABBREVIATIONS AND ACRONYMS	5
INTRODUCTION	7
1 COMPETITIVENESS IN INTERNATIONAL TRADE	9
1.1 Measuring competitiveness in international trade	10
1.2 Definition of competitiveness	16
1.3 Criteria, indicators and evaluation of competitiveness	29
1.4 Export competitiveness	33
1.5 Industrial competitiveness	35
1.6 Measuring competitiveness through GVCs and TiVA	39
1.6.1 Global value chains	39
1.6.2 Added value in exports and GVC upgrading	44
1.6.3 TiVA and its meaning for competitiveness	48
1.7 Current changes in GVCs, COVID-19 and determinants of competitiveness	52
2 MEASURING COMPETITIVENESS – APPROACHES AND METHODS	58
2.1 Competitiveness in terms of single-criterion methodology	59
2.1.1 Trade-balance based indicators	60
2.1.2 Development of export volume	62
2.1.3 Growth of exports in value (%)	65
2.1.4 Share in national exports (%)	65
2.1.5 Share in national imports (%)	70
2.1.6 Value of net exports	71
2.1.7 Revealed comparative advantage index	75
2.1.8 Michaely index	86
2.1.9 CTB index	87
2.1.10 Terms of Trade	89
2.1.11 Relative trade balance	92
2.1.12 Unit Labour Costs	94
2.1.13 Real effective exchange rate (REER)	97

2.2	Competitiveness in terms of multi-criteria methodology	99
2.2.1	The Global Competitiveness Report – WEF	100
2.2.2	The World Competitiveness Yearbook – IMD.	128
2.2.3	The Doing Business Report – World Bank	133
3	COMPETITIVENESS OF THE EU AND V4 COUNTRIES.	137
3.1	The sui generis EU and evolution of European integration	137
3.2	Competitiveness strategies of the “EU United in Diversity” in the New Millennium	164
3.2.1	Lisbon Strategy	164
3.2.2	Europe 2020 strategy	166
3.2.3	European Green Deal.	169
3.2.4	Results and analysis of the competitiveness of EU countries according to the Europe 2020/EU 2020 Strategy	185
3.3	Competitiveness of V4 countries	205
3.3.1	Competitiveness of V4 countries according to the GCI 4.0	205
3.3.2	Competitiveness of V4 countries according to the WCY	207
3.3.3	Implications	213
4	EU ENERGY POLICY AND EXPORT COMPETITIVENESS.	222
4.1	Energy Union and decarbonisation	222
4.2	Decarbonisation and competitiveness of industrial exporters.	226
4.3	Porter hypothesis and EU competitiveness.	232
4.3.1	UEC decomposition and industrial export competitiveness	234
4.3.2	Dynamics of UEC in the industry of the EU and V4.	238
	CONCLUSIONS.	244
	REFERENCES	248