

Contents

Preface	8
I Introduction to the collection of Rudolf II in the light of the legacy of the Habsburgs	13
The places for the preservation of the RudolFINE collection	20
II Studiolo	27
The beginnings of studioli in the 14th century	34
The beginnings of studioli in Bohemia	37
The Green Chambers	45
Studioli in the 15th century in the Czech Lands and examples from Italy – Kutná Hora, Urbino, Gubbio	49
Humanistic libraries as collection depositories	53
The studiolo of Rudolf II at Prague Castle	61
The studiolo in the White Tower	66
The development of studioli in the 16th and 17th centuries in the Czech Lands	72
III The Treasury	97
IV The Kunstkammer	111
The Kunstkammer of Rudolf II	117
The Kunstkammer of Peter Wok of Rosenberg	122
Carolus aquirens . Karl I of Liechtenstein and his spaces for collections	126
V The Antiquarium	155
The New Hall at Prague Castle	163
Bučovice	165
Ambras	169
VI The Gallery	173
Painted loggias, representative halls, and the beginning of the gallery in the Czech Lands	175
Genealogical cycles, heraldic cycles, virii illustri , portrait galleries	189
Galleries at Prague Castle	212
Bibliography	226
Personal index	256
Local index	262
Space for your notes	264