Contents

Acknowledgments vii
List of Contributors ix
Introduction xi
David Plunkett, Scott J. Shapiro, and Kevin Toh

1. "We'll see you in court!": The Rule of Law as an Explanatory and Normative Kind 1
Peter Railton, University of Michigan

2. Laws as Conventional Norms 23
Nicholas Southwood, Australian National University

3. Legal Teleology: A Naturalist Account of the Normativity of Law 45
David Copp, University of California, Davis

4. Is General Jurisprudence Interesting? 65
David Enoch, Hebrew University of Jerusalem

5. Legal Metanormativity: Lessons for and from Constitutivist Accounts in the Philosophy of Law 87
Kathryn Lindeman, Saint Louis University

6. Robust Normativity, Morality, and Legal Positivism 105
David Plunkett, Dartmouth College

7. Of Law and Other Artificial Normative Systems 137
Mitchell N. Berman, University of Pennsylvania

8. How to Argue for Law's Full-Blooded Normativity 165
George Letsas, University College London

9. Defining Normativity 187
Stephen Finlay, University of Southern California

10. Legal Philosophy à la carte 221
Kevin Toh, University College London

11. Theoretical Disagreements in Law: Another Look 249
Brian Leiter, University of Chicago

12. Hybrid Dispositionalism and the Law 263
Teresa Marques, Logos/University of Barcelona

13. Normativity in Language and Law 287
Alex Silk, University of Birmingham

14. Authority and Interest in the Theory of Right 315
Katharina Nieswandt, Concordia University

15. On the Legal Syllogism 335
Luís Duarte d'Almeida, University of Edinburgh

16. Dworkin's Literary Analogy 365
Sam Shpall, University of Sydney

17. Constitutional Realism 393
Connie S. Rosati, University of Arizona

INDEX 419