

---

Contents

List of contributors	ix
Acknowledgments	xiii
 Introduction	 1
LORI C. BOHM
 PART I
Loneliness in life and in treatment:
Psychoanalytic and existential perspectives	11
1 Someone to watch over me	13
SANDRA BUECHLER
2 The lived experience of loneliness: An existential-phenomenological perspective	29
ROGER FRIE
 PART II
New forms of loneliness in cyberspace	39
3 Loneliness and love-making on-line	41
BARBARA EISOLD
4 Less lonely in a second life? A psychologist goes under cover in virtual reality	49
JOHN O'LEARY
5 Internal space and (dis)connection in cyberspace: Adolescent
longings in a pseudo-connected society	59
KAREN L. LOMBARDI

PART III

Yearning and its vicissitudes

69

- 6 "I hate to choose . . . you choose": On inhibition of longing and desire 71
AMIRA SIMHA-ALPERN
- 7 Proust and the lonely pleasure of longing 81
ARLENE KRAMER RICHARDS & LUCILLE SPIRA
- 8 Twins in fantasy: Love and loneliness 93
EVELYN T. HARTMAN

PART IV

Loneliness through the life cycle

101

- 9 Silence the grinch: The loneliness of a boy who yearned to hear his father's voice 103
MATTHEW J. TEDESCHI
- 10 Loneliness, emptiness, and Wordsworth's "Bliss of Solitude" in life and literature 113
SUSAN OSTROV WEISSER
- 11 The phenomenology of the relational void: Probabilities and possibilities 121
JOAN LAVENDER
- 12 Challenges of aging: The impact of loneliness 135
MARY BETH M. CRESCI

PART V

Treating the difficult lonely patient

145

- 13 Loneliness in the disaffected (alexithymic) patient 147
GRAEME J. TAYLOR
- 14 "Tell me how to bear myself": On borderline desire, emptiness, and evocative dreaming 159
IONAS SAPOUNTZIS

PART VI*Healing the traumatized analyst's loneliness 173

- 15 In the shadow of suicide 175
JENNY KAUFMANN
- 16 The loneliness of the traumatized analyst and the self-righting function of his private practice 187
BRUCE HERZOG
- 17 The loneliness of the analyst and its alleviation through faith in "O" 197
JOHN A. SLOANE

PART VII*Loneliness and yearnings in the sociocultural surround 211

- 18 Yearning and loss in No Country for Old Men 213
ART CASPARY
- 19 A dialogue between psychoanalysis and religion regarding loneliness and yearning 223
PHILIP CLASSEN
- 20 Trauma trails from Ireland's great hunger: A psychoanalytic inquiry 233
MICHAEL O'LOUGHLIN

PART VIII*Yearning for nonhuman connections 251

- 21 Lonely for the other mother: Nature and the relational fourth 253
ELIZABETH ALLURED
- 22 On the longing for home 267
HENRY M. SEIDEN

PART IX*Expanding our theories to understand and treat loneliness and yearnings 281

- 23 The threat of exile—and abandonment 283
KENNETH EISOLD

- 24 Loneliness, longing, and limiting theoretical frameworks 295
BRENT WILLOCK

PART X*Reflections 315

- 25 Looking back on loneliness and longing 317
REBECCA COLEMAN CURTIS

- 26 Loneliness and longing: Crucial aspects of the human experience 321
BRENT WILLOCK

- Index* 335