

Contents

Preface	7
1 The Origin of Christianity	9
2 The Synagogue and the Church	12
3 Christianity and the Roman Empire	15
4 The Life of the Early Christians	19
5 Early Christian Writings	24
6 The Church in the Christian Roman Empire	29
7 The Christianization of Society	34
8 The Dogmatic Formulation of Christian Faith	38
9 The Fathers of the Church	43
10 Christianity and the Barbarian Nations	47
11 The Ascetical Life and Monasticism	51
12 Christianity in Feudal Europe	55
13 The Slow Gestation of the Eastern Schism	59
14 Papacy and Empire in the Middle Ages	63
15 The Zenith of Christendom	67
16 Structures of a Christian Society	71
17 Heresy in the Middle Ages	74
18 The Crisis of Christendom	77
19 The Western Schism and Conciliarism	81
20 Between the Middle Ages and the Modern Period	85
21 The Reformation in Germany:
Luther and Lutheranism	89
22 The Protestant Reformation in Europe	93
23 The Catholic Reformation	97
24 From the Wars of Religion to the Final Split	102
25 The Great French Century	106
26 Royal Absolutism versus the Papacy	110
27 The Anti-Christian Enlightenment	114
28 From Revolution to Restoration	118
29 Catholicism and Liberalism	122
30 The Era of Pius IX	126