

Contents

Ethnic Studies, the Theme of Borders and the Application of Barth's Approach to Roma in the Czech Republic Zdeněk Uherek	2
Participant Observation, Observed Participation and Fieldwork Davide Torsello	21
Anthropology of Central and Eastern Europe: A Few Remarks on (Urban) Research in the Post-socialist Society Alexandra Bitušíková	29
Changing Cities and Towns and Urban Society in the Twentieth Century Jolana Darulová	46
Slovak Village in the Process of Socio-economic Change Olga Danglová	64
Inaccessible Properties, Unclear Possession and Interethnic Tensions Stanislav Kužel	80
Town and Socio-historical Processes: Initial Points of Analysis Juraj Zajonc	110
Political Culture and its Stability in the Post-Yugoslav Area Ladislav Cabada	126
Karlovy/Libinsdorf: A Village in Discourse, a Discourse in a Village Petr Lozoviuk	147
The Limits of Multiculturalism: What Can We Learn from Fadime Sahindal's Killing? Jan Grill	174
The Northern Khants - The Culture of Reindeer Herdsmen in Post-Soviet Russia František Bahenský	193
Research Methods of Folkloristics in Relation to the Research Object Hana Hlôšková	211