

Contents

Preface	7
---------------	---

Introduction

Janusz Żarnowski Considerations on the Political Culture of Central Europe in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries: Specific Features of Epochs and Regions	11
---	----

I. Political Culture in the Period of National Movements (Long Nineteenth Century)

Maciej Janowski Gentry and Democracy: on the Polish Nineteenth-Century Political Culture	29
Luboš Velek The Political Culture in the Czech Lands 1848-1918	45
Dušan Kováč Nationalism and Political Culture in Austria-Hungary in the Period of Dualism	71
Milena Lenderová The Ideal of Femininity in Relation to Politics: Patriotic Czech Women in the Nineteenth Century	89

II. Political Culture in Nation-States of Central Europe (Interwar Period)

Jerzy W. Borejsza Between Democracy, Authoritarianism and Totalitarianism, or about the Political Culture of East-Central Europe in the Twentieth Century: Some Remarks	101
Ivan Kamenec Political Culture in Slovakia after 1918: the Ideal and the Reality	113

Jindřich Dejmek
Political Culture in Interwar Czechoslovakia: Explanatory Notes to the Main Features of Czechoslovak Democracy	121
Algimantas Kasparavičius
Between Parliamentary Democracy and Authoritarianism: Political Culture in Lithuania in the Interwar Period	145
Attila Pók
Nationalism and the Politics of Hatred: Some Twentieth-Century Hungarian Perspectives	163
Heidi Hein
Political Cults as a Core Element of Political Culture: the Example of the Piłsudski-Cult during the Second Polish Republic	181

III. Political Culture in Times of War

Jan Němeček
Political Culture and Czechoslovak Resistance Abroad during the Second World War	205
Marek Kornat
Anti-Communism in Polish Political Thought during the Second World War	219
Jindřich Dejmek and Jan Němeček
Political Partisanship and a Path towards the Transfer of Minorities from Czechoslovakia	245

IV. Political Culture in the Times of Subordination and Struggle for Sovereignty (Postwar Period)

Jiří Kocian
Political Culture in Czechoslovakia 1945–1968	271
Andrzej Friszke
Political Culture in the People's Republic of Poland 1948-1989	283
Oldřich Tůma
Political Culture in Czechoslovakia 1968–1989	311
Klaus Ziemer
Political Culture in Postwar Germany	327
Marína Zavacká
Political Culture Reflected in Communist Myths	351
List of Contributors	365