

Contents

1. The Alternatives to War	1
1.1 Introducing the Measures	1
1.2 Significance of the Analysis	3
1.3 Scope of the Analysis	10
1.4 The Road Ahead	14
2. The Pragmatic Approach	18
2.1 Four Tests	19
2.2 The Pragmatic Approach	21
2.3 Defence of the Pragmatic Approach	26
2.4 Conclusion	38
3. Economic Sanctions	39
3.1 Economic Sanctions Introduced	40
3.2 Deontological Objections to Economic Sanctions	42
3.3 An Instrumental Objection to Sanctions: The Ineffectiveness Objection	50
3.4 In Favour of Sanctions: Fairness Introduced	58
3.5 Sanctions and the Doctrine of Doing and Allowing	68
3.6 Conclusion	69
4. Arms Embargoes	70
4.1 Arms Embargoes Introduced	71
4.2 The Prima Facie Case for Arms Embargoes	72
4.3 The Nonideal Critique of Arms Embargoes	74
4.4 The Nonideal Case for Arms Embargoes	82
4.5 Conclusion	90
5. Diplomacy	91
5.1 The Case for Diplomatic Criticism	92
5.2 Objections to Diplomatic Criticism	100
5.3 Dialogue	106
5.4 Mediation	109
5.5 The Cutting and Downgrading of Diplomatic Ties	110
5.6 The Denial of Membership of an International or Regional Body	111
5.7 Conclusion	112
6. Non-violent Resistance	114
6.1 What Is Civilian Peacekeeping?	115
6.2 The Prima Facie Case for Civilian Peacekeeping	118
6.3 Objections to Civilian Peacekeeping	121

6.4 Civilian Defence	129
6.5 Conclusion	134
7. Positive Incentives	135
7.1 The Use and Meaning of Incentives	137
7.2 The Prima Facie Case for Incentives	140
7.3 The Case Against Incentives	147
7.4 Incentives: When and How	158
7.5 Amnesties	163
7.6 Conclusion	166
8. Military Assistance	167
8.1 The Blanket Ban View and the Case for Arming Rebels	169
8.2 The Just Rebellion View and Its Exceptions	174
8.3 General Objections to Arming Rebels	176
8.4 Arming States	182
8.5 Conclusion	184
9. Secondary Measures: Prosecution and Amelioration	185
9.1 Prosecution: International Criminal Justice	186
9.2 Amelioration 1: Refugee Protection	198
9.3 Amelioration 2: Humanitarian Assistance	205
9.4 Conclusion	210
10. The Alternatives, Just War Theory, and Pacifism	211
10.1 The Alternatives Summarized	211
10.2 Implications for War	214
10.3 Implications for Pacifism	216
10.4 Implications for Just War Theory	220
10.5 Implications for the R2P Doctrine	225
10.6 Conclusion	227
Bibliography	229
Index	253