

CONTENTS

Preface	7
Introduction	9
1. What is a Word?	21
2. Sentences, Syntax, and Parts of Speech	28
3. Sentences Describing Experiences	45
4. The Object-Language	59
5. Logical Words	74
6. Proper Names	89
7. Egocentric Particulars	102
8. Perception and Knowledge	110
9. Epistemological Premisses	124
10. Basic Propositions	130
11. Factual Premisses	142
12. An Analysis of Problems Concerning Propositions	158
13. The Significance of Sentences: A. General – B. Psychological – C. Syntactical	162
14. Language as Expression	194
15. What Sentences ‘Indicate’	203
16. Truth and Falsehood: Preliminary Discussion	214
17. Truth and Experience	223
18. General Beliefs	233
19. Extensionality and Atomicity	244
20. The Law of Excluded Middle	258
21. Truth and Verification	272
22. Significance and Verification	289
23. Warranted Assertibility	301
24. Analysis	309
25. Language and Metaphysics	322
Index	329