

Table of contents

Editor's Introduction

I. EUROPEAN VALUES, RELIGION AND HUMAN RIGHTS

Building a Common European Identity: Between Unity and Diversity
Matevž Tomšič

The Islamist Challenge: How Europe can Defend its Values
Thomas Volk

Terrorism: History, Definition and the Case of Bulgaria
Sofiya Tsvetkova

Euroscepticism and Nationalist Populism
Antonis Klapsis and Panagiotis Kakolyris

Room for Religion: Liberal versus Christian Democratic Arguments for the Presence of Religion in the Public Domain
Rien Fraanje

Public Expressions of Religious Faith
Peeter Vosu

The European People's Party and Human Rights
Vladimír Hanáček and Jan Málek

II. IMMIGRATION AND MINORITIES

Alternatives to Multiculturalism: Why Saying It has Failed is not Enough
Abel Ravasz

New Migration and the European Dilemma of Unity and Diversity
Ioanna Charalambous, Michalinos Zembylas and Sotiris Themistokleous

Public Policy, the Integration of New Minorities and Party Competition	121
Ol'ga Gyarfasova and Grigorij Meseznikov
The Solidarity Principle and the Current Migration Emergency	131
Luigi Crema
Explaining Immigration to the European Public	141
Lucie Tungul
The Protection of Autochthonous Minorities in Europe: Developments and Challenges	153
Sergiu Constantin
Minority Representation in the New EU Member States	165
István Gergó Székely and István Horváth
Autochthonous Minorities and the Structuring of National Education Systems	175
Serban Iosifescu
Local Solutions to Immigrant and Roma Integration	187
Míroslava Szitová, Marek Degro and Miroslav Pollák
Synthesis	201
Vít Novotný	