

Contents

6 Preface

1. Break the box

INFLUENCES and INSPIRATION

2. Let nature inspire you

3. Reinterpret familiar forms

4. Learn from indigenous design

5. Look to Asia

6. Make the room dance

SITE and LANDSCAPE

7. Spread across the prairie

8. Adapt to the desert

9. Build with the land, not on it

10. Build on the brow

11. Frame the landscape

12. Design for resilience

13. Dream of better worlds

DESIGN and SOCIETY

14. Create communal environments

15. Make the landscape democratic

16. Learn from the city

17. Give suburbia a soul

18. Design castles for the people

19. Be functional and artful

20. Dwell in the living room

21. Express the room within

22. Embrace the future

SPACE and EXPERIENCE

23. Compress and release

24. Open the corner

25. Shelter with overhangs

26. Reach out beyond

27. Screen, don't close

28. Mold with light

COMPOSITION and MOVEMENT

29. Balance the whole
30. Activate the angle
31. Rotate and lock
32. Let "X" mark the spot
33. Turn and turn again
34. Make it flow
35. Bring the household together
36. Celebrate work—sometimes
37. Embrace simple materials
38. Make concrete beautiful

BUILDING and BODY

39. Express the inner rhythm
40. Make the room glow
41. Form a room with furniture
42. Direct the human body
43. Embroider rooms with textiles
44. Mirror your world
45. Accentuate with red
46. Take care of the luxuries in life

ABSTRACTION and COSMOS

47. Circle the cosmos
 48. Spiral to heaven
 49. Connect with the sky
 50. Be true to oneself
- 242 Afterword: What not to learn from Frank Lloyd Wright
- 244 Acknowledgments
- 246 Sources of Frank Lloyd Wright quotations
- 247 Image credits