

Contents

Citation Information	vii
Notes on Contributors	ix
Introduction: Sports Journalism: Changing journalism practice and digital media Raymond Boyle	1
1 A Community of Practice: Sport journalism, mobile media and institutional change Brett Hutchins and Raymond Boyle	4
2 Controlling the Message and the Medium? The impact of sports organisations' digital and social channels on media access Merryn Sherwood, Matthew Nicholson and Timothy Marjoribanks	21
3 Cheerleaders or Critics? Australian and Indian sports journalists in the contemporary age Peter English	40
4 Playing on the Same Pitch: Attitudes of sports journalists towards fan bloggers Simon McEnnis	57
5 Sports Journalism, Supporters and new Technologies: Challenging the usual complicity between media and football institutions Ana Carolina Vimieiro	75
6 Data Visualisation in Sports Journalism: Opportunities and challenges of data-driven journalism in German football Thomas Horky and Philipp Pelka	95
7 Pressure on Printed Press: How soccer clubs determine journalism in the German Bundesliga Christoph G. Grimmer	115

- 8 The State of Sport Photojournalism: Concepts, practice and challenges 144
Richard Haynes, Adrian Hadland and Paul Lambert
- 9 Take Five: How Sports Illustrated and L'Équipe redefine the long-form sports journalism genre 160
Christopher Tulloch and Xavier Ramon

Index

181