

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of tables	viii
List of contributors	ix
Foreword	xiv
Katherine Trebeck, Wellbeing Economy Alliance
1 Introduction to wellbeing research	1
Beverley A. Searle, Jessica Pykett and Maria Jesus Alfaro-Simmonds
PART I APPROACHING WELLBEING
2 Commentary to Part I: reanimating the radical possibilities of wellbeing	23
Sarah Atkinson
3 Towards a queer epistemological framework for wellbeing research	29
Julia Zielke
4 A Marxian approach to wellbeing: human nature and use value	51
David Watson
5 Developing qualitative, biographical research into happiness and wellbeing: a sociological perspective	68
Mark Cieslik
6 Practicing wellbeing through community economies: an action research approach	84
Thomas SJ Smith and Kelly Dombroski
PART II PRACTICING WELLBEING
7 Commentary to Part II: a wellbeing lens in practice	104
Neil Thin

8	Prisoners' rehabilitation and wellbeing: a psychosocial perspective Fabio Tartarini	110
9	Gender and wellbeing in post-war Sri Lanka Fazeeha Azmi	129
10	Wellbeing and inclusion: a place for religion Laura Kapinga and Bettina Bock	148
11	Children experiencing happiness in the city Maria Jesus Alfaro-Simmonds	164
12	Housing inequalities and wellbeing: a critical analysis of narratives from stakeholders in Luxembourg Magdalena Górczyńska-Angiulli and Elise Machline	185
13	Woodlands and wellbeing: evaluating the 'Actif Woods Wales' programme Heli Gittins, Sophie Wynne-Jones and Val Morrison	207

PART III WHERE NEXT FOR WELLBEING?

14	Commentary to Part III: wellbeing: a means for informed policy-making Susan J Elliott	229
15	Who benefits and who suffers from international migration? Global evidence from the science of happiness Martijn Hendriks	234
16	Human wellbeing in environmental management Kelly Biedenweg and David J Trimbach	247
17	Budgeting for wellbeing Arthur Grimes	268
18	Subjective wellbeing and transformation Beverley A. Searle	284
	Index	301