
CONTAIN

Foreword	9
Introduction: Natural conservatism as a starting point	11
Unnatural life	13
Change in principles at the edge of eras – origin of unnaturalness	13
Decadent process – increasing of debt which does not have to be settled; imbalanced wealth	15
Technique of unnaturalness and technology of imbalanced wealth	23
Manifestation of decadence – the Threat	25
Natural principles and general order	33
Ontological theory of natural principles	33
Structure of existence of ideal beings; layer and cosmic principles	39
Timeless natural life	41
General order, transposition, and social and traditional order	46
Evolution of general order; transposition of rules	55
Continuity (timelessness) and equilibrium (harmony)	57
Human essence and its imperfections and immutability	66
Rebellion against naturalness	71
Roots of rebellion against nature - detachment and uprooting	71
Belonging and grounding	81
Liberation and disjunction of man; Marx's alienation	85
Historical process of the phenomenon of disjunction	89
Values substituting order; the unnatural face of values and human rights	91
The road to nothingness	96

Open Society and other contemporary philosophies of current modernity	103
Socialism	111
The ideas of liberty and equality	113
Equality in an individualistic world, relativism, egalitarianism	117
Gender theory as an example of disjunction and nothingness	125
Globalization a internationalism	128
Interpretation of natural principles	131
The law of natural selection in a human society; evolution	131
Ecological approach to the law of natural selection; diversity as a condition	140
The principle of asymmetry and extremity	144
Natural communities	148
Will and arbitrariness	157
Belonging and entropy	160
Revival – spiritually cultural comeback	162
Timeless humanism as a challenge to survive	167
Timeless society	177
Philosophical solutions to timeless humanism	185
Rooting – return to home	187
The economy of timeless humanism, security and autarchy	194
Conclusion: End of the history?	201
Literature	203