

Contents

1	Introduction: The Study of Legislation	1
	References	7
2	The Dignity of Laws	11
2.1	The Doubts of Our Time	11
2.2	Legitimacy Problems	12
2.3	The Dispute Over Quality	14
2.4	The Alleged Inflation	16
2.5	The Dignity of Regulation	19
	References	21
3	Laws Under Suspicion	25
3.1	Legislation and Public Interest	25
3.2	Capturing the Legislator	27
3.3	Public Choice and Its Premises	29
3.4	Politics Without Romanticism	31
3.5	A Few Exceptions	35
3.6	In Search of Another Theory of Legislation	36
	References	40
4	The Design of Laws	43
4.1	Laws and Reasons	43
4.2	Laws to Solve Problems	48
4.3	Identifying Objectives	52
4.4	Various Solutions	56
4.5	Evaluation of Options	57
4.6	In Favor of a Legislative Policy Office	62
	References	64

5	Legislative Policy	67
5.1	To Intervene or Not to Intervene	67
5.2	The Market as a Regulatory Policy	70
5.3	A Well-Equipped Toolbox	75
5.4	Legislative Policy	78
	References	81
6	A Soft Law	83
6.1	New Paths	83
6.2	Companies to Develop Norms	85
6.3	Self-Regulation	89
6.4	Reinforced Self-Regulation	92
6.5	Indirect Self-Regulation	96
	References	99
7	The Art of Regulating	101
7.1	Reward and Punishment	101
7.2	Information and Persuasion	102
7.3	Incentive-Based Regulation	104
7.4	Directive-Based Regulation	108
7.5	Norms Requiring the Provision of Information	110
7.6	Goal or Target Norms, Performance Norms, and Specification Norms	112
7.7	Authorisations and Licences	115
7.8	Commercialisation of Licences	117
	References	118
8	Models of Legislative Drafting	121
8.1	The Protagonism of Governments	122
8.2	The Continental European Drafting System	124
8.3	The Anglo-Saxon System	126
8.4	The U.S. Drafting System	129
8.5	The Spanish System	130
8.6	A Comparison Between Systems	134
	References	137
9	The Drafter's Tasks	139
9.1	First Steps	139
9.1.1	Goal-Setting	141
9.1.2	Choossing the Appropriate Normative Tool	143
9.1.3	Inserting the Norm in the Existing Framework	143
9.1.4	First Sketch and Structure of the Text	145
9.2	Drafting the Text	147
9.2.1	Mastery of Language	148
9.2.2	Problems Arisen from Ambiguity	149
9.2.3	The Virtues of Vagueness	151

9.2.4	Precision Versus Clarity	152
9.2.5	Two Styles of Drafting: English and Continental-European	154
9.2.6	Delegations	158
9.3	The Critical Review of Drafts	159
	References	160
10	The Drafter’s Deontology	165
10.1	The Drafter and the Genesis of Norms	165
10.2	Drafters and Jurists	167
10.3	Materials for a Code of Conduct	169
	References	175
11	Implementation	177
11.1	Implementation	177
11.2	Taking Memoranda Seriously	182
11.3	Analysing the Impact of Norms	186
	References	191
12	Government and Parliament	193
12.1	The Legislative Agenda	193
12.2	Government and the Production of Laws	196
12.3	The Role of Parliament	200
	References	203
13	Legislators and Judges	205
13.1	The Judge as an Agent	205
13.2	New Proposals	207
13.3	Interpretation and Theory of Legislation	210
13.4	Interaction Between Legislators and Judges	215
	References	217
14	Epilogue: The Art of Legislating and Globalisation	219
	References	225
	Index	227