

Contents

Acknowledgements	vi
Chapter 1
The European Union: Policy-making through organizational discursive practices	1
Peter Muntigl
Chapter 2
Labor Markets, Unemployment and the Rhetoric of Globalization.	27
Sociological and economic background
Gilbert Weiss
Chapter 3
Researching the European Union. Data and ethnography	51
Gilbert Weiss
Chapter 4
From Conflict to Consensus? The co-construction of a policy paper	73
Ruth Wodak
Chapter 5
A Difference that Makes no Difference? Decision-making on employment in the European Parliament	115
Gilbert Weiss
Chapter 6
Dilemmas of Individualism and Social Necessity	145
Peter Muntigl
Chapter 7
Discussion: The EU Committee Regime and the Problem of Public Space. Strategies of depoliticizing unemployment and ideologizing employment policies	185
Gilbert Weiss and Ruth Wodak
Appendix	207
References	225
Index	233