
Contents

List of Illustrations ix

Preface and Acknowledgments xi

Part I Collective Identity and International Relations Theory

1. International Relations Without Nations? 3
2. Social Identities and Social Systems 26
3. Identities and Social Orders: International Systems in Modern History 51

Part II Territorial-Sovereign Identity

4. Raison d'Etat and Territorial Sovereignty: Mercantilist Absolutism and Eighteenth-Century Imperialism 77
5. Territorial-Sovereign Identity and the Seven Years' War 105

Part III National-Sovereign Identity

6. The Emergence of National-Sovereign Identity: Revolutionary
Nationalism and Reaction 133

7. Use and Misuse of the Principle of Nationality: The Demise of the Second Empire and the Birth of the Second Reich 173
8. National Sovereignty and the New Imperialism: The Global Transmission of Bourgeois-National Identity and Culture 214
9. "Over-the-Top" and "Over There": Status Contests Among National-Sovereigns 248

Part IV Conclusions and Implications

10. The Helpless Colossus: The Politics of Identity and Hopeful Nondeterminism 279

Notes 301

Bibliography 347

Index 365