

Table of Contents

List of Contributors	xi
1. The Idea of European Public Law Today	1
Armin von Bogdandy
A. The Field of European Public Law	1
B. The Concept and Functions of European Public Law	12
C. Ramifications	24
2. European Public Law—Lessons from the Concept's Past	30
Armin von Bogdandy and Stephan Hinghofer-Szalkay
A. Why Engage With Past Ideas?	30
B. The Seventeenth and Eighteenth Century: Setting the Scene	32
C. The Nineteenth Century: Reconstructions in Light of Grand Cleavages	39
D. Schmitt's Contribution to Ius Publicum Europaeum	45
E. Schmitt's Relevance for European Public Law Today	53
3. The Administrative State in Europe	57
Sabino Cassese
A. Common Foundations	57
B. Two Models of State in Europe: France and England	60
C. Two Latecomers: Germany and Italy	65
D. Unifying Trends	67
E. The Classical Configuration	69
F. Continuity and Change	73
G. Executive Powers beyond the State: The Case of the European Union	78
H. The Impact of Globalization and the Emergence of the Global Legal Space	87
I. Reconsidering the State in the Broader Legal Spaces	92
4. The Administrative State in America	98
William J. Novak
A. Introduction	98
B. The Nature of a Modern State	102
C. Positive Law: The American Reception of Analytical Jurisprudence	110
D. Administrative Law and Public Service	116
E. Conclusion: American Administration and the Rule of Law	122
5. Evolution and Gestalt of the Austrian State	125
Ewald Wiederin
A. Austria as an Administrative State	126
B. The Genesis of State and Administration	127
C. The Original Context of Administrative Law	134
D. Milestones of the Development of Austria's Administration	142

E. Shaping the Austrian Administration	152
F. Classical Structures of Austrian Administration	160
G. The Austrian Concept of Administrative Law	163
6. Evolution and Gestalt of the French State	165
Jean-Bernard Auby and Marcel Morabito
A. The Basis of the French Model	166
B. Implanting Administrative Law	178
C. The Establishment of 'Classical' French Administrative Law	183
D. Contemporary Evolutions	189
7. Evolution and Gestalt of the German State	196
Armin von Bogdandy and Peter M Huber
A. The Setting	196
B. The Unfolding of State and Administration	198
C. Developmental Paths of Administrative Law	209
D. Administration and Administrative Law under the Basic Law of 1949	218
E. The Concept of Administrative Law	234
8. Evolution and Gestalt of the Greek State	237
Michael Ioannidis and Stylianos-Ioannis G Koutnatzis
A. Introduction	238
B. The Genesis of State and Administration	238
C. Origins of Administrative Law	252
D. The Classical Concepts of Administration and Administrative Law	259
E. The Definition of Administrative Law	287
F. Concluding Remarks	288
9. Evolution and Gestalt of the Hungarian State	290
Herbert Küpper
A. Overview	290
B. State and Administration in the Bourgeois Era	292
C. State and Administration in Socialism	310
D. Return to a 'Bourgeois' State and Administration after 1989	316
10. Evolution and Gestalt of the Italian State	329
Bernardo Giorgio Mattarella
A. The Nineteenth Century: Development of Administrations and the Genesis of Administrative Law	329
B. The First Half of the Twentieth Century: The Administrative Law of Authority	338
C. The Second Half of the Twentieth Century: Liberal Administrative Law	344
D. The Twenty-First Century: The Features of Administrative Law	356
E. Concluding Remarks	364
11. Evolution and Gestalt of the Spanish State	368
Eduardo García de Enterría and Ignacio Borrajo Iniesta
A. The Geneses of State and Administration in Spain	368
B. The Major Areas of Development of Administrative Law	390
C. The Classic Configuration of Public Administration and Administrative Law	398
D. The Concept of Administrative Law	410

12. Evolution and Gestalt of the Swiss State	414
Benjamin Schindler
A. The Genesis of State and Administration	415
B. Contours of the Development of Administrative Law	419
C. The Traditional Shape of the Administration	437
D. The Concept of Administrative Law	444
E. Conclusion	449
13. Evolution and Gestalt of the State in the United Kingdom	451
Martin Loughlin
A. Introduction	451
B. State	453
C. Constitution	466
D. Administration	472
E. The Growth of Public Law in the Twentieth Century	482
F. Conclusion	492
14. The Complex Relationship Between Administrative and Constitutional Law: A Comparative and Historical Analysis	493
Luc Heuschling
A. Introduction	494
B. The Two World Thesis: A Rarity and Conceptual Absurdity	501
C. The United Kingdom: Still a Special Case?	515
D. The Common European Paradigm: A Two-Sided Relationship	523
15. Legal Conceptions of Statehood	557
Giovanni Biaggini
A. The Conception of the State: Classical Concepts	557
B. The Characterizations of Statehood over Time	559
C. Conceptions of State and Administration: Bi-Directional Influencing	562
D. Administration: Structures and Boundaries	566
E. Concluding Observations: Europeanization and Europeanizations	577
16. A Typology of Administrative Law in Europe	579
Michel Fromont
A. Introduction	579
B. The Structural Features of Types of Administrative Law	581
C. The Most Important Types of Administrative Law in Europe	585
D. Conclusion	599
17. The Transformation of the Administrative State and Administrative Law	601
Jean-Bernard Auby
A. Introduction	602
B. The Historical Construction of Administrative States and Administrative Laws in Europe	603
C. Current Developments in National Administrative Law: The Evolutionary Factors	609
D. Current Developments in National Administrative Law: The Lines of Transformation	616
E. Renewal of Paradigms	621
F. The Future of the Models	628

18. Europeanization of Public Law	631
Michal Bobek
A. Introduction and Three Examples	631
B. Europeanization: What is in the Name?	634
C. Europeanization, the Narrow View: How Much 'Europe' is There?	637
D. Europeanization, Writ Large: A Study in Complexity	652
E. Europeanization, Comparative Law, and Legal Scholarship	661
F. Europeanization, Fast-track: The Experience of a New Europe	665
G. Conclusions	670
 Index	 675