

Contents

---

Notes on Contributors	ix
List of Illustrations	xiii
Preface and Acknowledgments	xix
Introduction	1
I. Meaning and Memory	9
1. Culture, Heritage, and Ethics Constantine Sandis	11
2. Poppy Politics: Remembrance of Things Present James Fox	21
3. The Meaning of the Public in an Age of Privatisation Benjamin Ramm	31
II. History and Archaeology	41
4. History as Heritage: Producing the Present in Post-War Sri Lanka Nira Wickramasinghe	43
5. Looking at the Acropolis of Athens from Modern Times to Antiquity William St Clair	57
6. South Asian Heritage and Archaeological Practices Sudeshna Guha	103
7. The Ethics of Digging Geoffrey Scarre	117
III. Ownership and Restitution	129
8. 'National' Heritage and Scholarship Sir John Boardman	131
9. Fear of Cultural Objects Tom Flynn	135
10. Restitution Sir Mark Jones	149

IV. Management and Protection	169
11. The Possibilities and Perils of Heritage Management Michael F. Brown	171
12. Values in World Heritage Sites Geoffrey Belcher	181
13. Safeguarding Heritage: From Legal Rights over Objects to Legal Rights for Individuals and Communities? Marie Cornu	197
Appendix: Links to Selected International Charters and Conventions on Cultural Heritage	205