

The New CAMBRIDGE English Course

STUDENT 3

INTERMEDIATE

MICHAEL SWAN

The New Cambridge English Course is a four-level course for learners of English. Level 3 takes students from pre-intermediate up to a good intermediate level. It can be used with learners who have studied Levels 1 and 2 of the course, or as an independent intermediate course.

The New Cambridge English Course 3:

- teaches all the language and skills necessary at intermediate level.
- provides a minimum of 72 hours' classwork organised in two-page 90-minute lessons.
- is divided into five blocks, each containing eight lessons followed by a Summary, a Revision and Fluency Practice section and a Revision Test.
- is organised so that each block provides four 'general-purpose' lessons; two lessons focusing on special problems of grammar, vocabulary and pronunciation; and two lessons focusing on specific skills.
- includes a Grammar Revision Section at the back of the Student's Book with optional extra classwork on basic grammar points.
- involves the learner in discussing and formulating grammar rules and explanations.
- encourages imagination, creativity and personal expression.
- provides frequent opportunities for student choice.

Level 3 possesses all the features of the New Cambridge English Course series, including:

- proven multi-syllabus approach
- clearly focused and 'signposted' aims for each lesson
- wide variety of presentation and practice material
- allowance for different learning styles and teaching situations
- balance between control and freedom in language practice
- motivating range of up-to-date topics
- frequent use of authentic reading and listening material
- highly attractive, clearly organised page design

The Student's Book contains everything necessary for class work; it is supported by a wide choice of homework exercises in the Practice Book.

The other components of this level are:
