

| | |
|--|----|
| Preface (Alicja Maleszka) | 5 |
| Mariusz J. Ligarski System approach in the certified quality management system | 7 |
| Alina Matuszak-Flejszman Factors influencing the improvement of environmental management system according to ISO 14001 | 15 |
| Eugeniusz Krzemiń, Radosław Wolniak Integrated management systems – quality, environment, safety and health at work | 27 |
| Justyna Górna, Alina Matuszak-Flejszman The integration of PN-EN ISO 22000:2006 and GMP* standard B2 requirements – a case study | 35 |
| Jacek Łuczak Significance of Quality Management System (ISO/ TS 16949) for OE/OES suppliers in the automotive industry. Research results of companies located in Poland | 45 |
| Magdalena Kaźmierczak Corporate social responsibility (CSR) and quality management: the strategic connection | 57 |
| Radosław Wolniak Power distance in public organisations | 66 |
| Stanisław Hornik Psychosocial aspects of quality management | 74 |
| Andrzej Gajewski TRIZ and human-centered design in assessing goods | 82 |
| Małgorzata Lotko Economical conditions of comprehensive occupational health management in the knowledge based economy | 91 |
| Dariusz Klak The position and role of failure mode and effects analysis in the system of enterprise quality management | 97 |

Jerzy Żuchowski

Process flexibility as a catalyst for innovative activity in leather industry 105

Magda Bogalecka, Marzenna Popek

The quality of the emergency response process at sea – emergency tools for sea rescuers 116